UPBRINGING OF CHILDREN

Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said:

"All of you are guardians and are responsible for your subjects. The ruler is a guardian of his subjects and the man is a guardian of his family, the lady is a guardian of her husband's house and his off-spring and all of you are guardians and are responsible for your subjects".

Forward.

The love of one's child is embedded in the hearts of all parents by Allah Ta'la, irrespective of the parents being Mustim or non Mustlim, black or white, eastern or western. There is no lack of evidence to prove this point. The millions of dollars spent annually by parents in purchasing of children's clothing, shoos, food and toys bear amade testimove to this love.

In courts of law, where parents engage best attorneys and advocates to obtain custody of the children when a marriage has ended, or there is a separation, is a demonstration of this love. The hearthreak, trauma, depression and suffering experienced by parents as can be determined from towappear articles reporting the disappearance or loss of one's children or child is further proof of the inturnion and inherent love.

This is where the similarity end between non Mustim and Mustim pareets. The love thet Mustim pareets thave is not confined or limited to providing of material and physical comforts and requirements of this worldly sojourn only, but no mode the life of the child in the light of the teachings of the Holy Qurant and our Beloved Nelly Symptomian Mohamend (Sallaisha alsylti vasalam) so that the child may only a fife of eternal happiness and joy, steer death.

Islam is a complete way of tife and has left no aspect of hie without guidance and direction. Of the many duties and responsibilities that the Muslim parents have is the obligation upon them to instil love of Allah and His Rasul (Salallahu alayhi

It is an obligation upon them to save themselves and their children from earning the worth of Alah Trials in this world and the punishment in the fire of Hell in the Hereafter. This can only be achieved by applying, practising and following the gueddines of Sharnah in the uphringing of the Children.

INTRODUCTION

The Islamic social structure throughout the world is rapidly deteriorating due to the adoption and adherence of the western lifestyle and total lack of Islamic consciousness Nowadays Muslims are sunk in a state of general neglect in the observance of the commandments of Allah Taxis and have become bold in disobeying His commandments by indulging in sins and flifting in disobarying the rights of others.

Most of the parents complian that the vausage generation (referring to their children) are discheden ill mannered and discespeciful. Upon careful consideration, it appears that the main cause for this rebellion lies in the fact but the parents are neglecting to impart Islamic knowledge and turbiyat to their children. On the contrary parents are mising their children in a totally unlabarise environment and influencing them to act according to western ways, Illicoyles and technique it should be clearly understood that it to parents duty and responsibility and the city of the child that he receives the Ealernic Innovivolge and the right of the child that he receives the Ealernic Innovivolge.

Therefore it now becomes interative to save the Islamic society from total ruin and strive for its salvation. The first step to save the Muslim society is to establish the family on the correct Islamic bundleting.

One of the greatest gifts that Allah Taa'la has bestowed upon His servants is the gift of children. In fact we are even encouraged to ask for children as Allah Taa'la says in the Ourage.

رَتِ هَبْ لِيْ مِنْ لَدُنْكَ دُيْرِيَّةٌ كَلِيِّهُ ۗ لَنَّكَ سَمِيْعُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ

"O' my Rab, from besides you bestow me with a pure progeny Verily You are the hearer of supplications"

LIDED BY CHARLES COME BREAK

From the above syst we deduce that we are encouraged to ask for pious children In another avat Allah Taal's says

"Verily we give you the glad tidings of a son, his name is Yahya"

The gift and ni'met of children will only be enjoyed if the child is brought up in such a way that he is the coolness of the purents eyes from brit to death From here we see that Allah Tania says regarding children as glad tidings. From this we learn that children are a creat off from Allah Tania.

The gift and ni'met of children will only be enjoyed when from the time the child is brought up in such a way that he becomes the coolers of the twee of the parents.

With this intention in view, we full it absolutely necessary to complete a kitals entitled "Uphrings of Childran" for our readers. A complete study companing comprehensive teachings and practices on the correct uphringing of children is presented in this tituals. Practical examples from the life of Kaupklah, exceeding the companions of the control of the control of the companions and prose people have been extensively equoted so that it may prove a practical uside for all the radder.

We hope that this kitaab will assist parents immensely in imparting Islamic knowledge to their children, thus moulding them into good, plous and Islamic conscious parents of tomorrow (Inshadash)

May Allah Taa'ia accept this kitaab and make it a means of najaat from the fire of jahannum for the compilers, their families, relatives and the ummat at large. (Aameen)

Rasulullah (Saliallahu alayhi wasallam's)

Love for Children

Since this book is discussing the upbringing of children, it is most appropriate that we open this chapter by mentioning how our beloved Nahi Karreem Rasuluha (Sallalabu alayhi wisallam) who was the noblest and fountain head of good character treated children.

Readually (Stallales) alsysts wasalton) was very losi to children and he loved time denty! he would stroke their heads out of love and would yazy for them. Whenever thildren came near him, be and would yazy for them. Whenever thildren came near him, be considered to the stroke the stroke the stroke the stroke of the stroke

Whenever Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) passed by children he would greet them, pat his hands on their heads and carry the small children On seising a mother loving her baby he would be deeply affected. When discussing the mothers he would say "Whorever Allah fivours with children and he loves them and also fulfile his obligations towards them, then he would remain safe from the fixe of labaroms"

If while returning from a journey Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) met children on the way he would pick them up affectionately and get them seated before or behind on his camel Children also loved him very much No sooner than when they saw him, they would run up to him. He would pick them up individually and kiss them, he would then give them dates of referring fruit or some other rice things to eat If Rasulallah (Sallallah alayhi wasallam) heard a buly ery in the congregation he was leading, he would shorten the SALAAT in order to relieve the mother from the distraction, (Khasail-Nahawa).

Hazzar Assa (Radgivallatu solno) has related that "Rassoluble (Stallabla slight westland) was very gentle and fand One day be sent me on some errand I said by Allah, I will not go, though in wheart I said, I will offer carriad on which Rassolubla (Schlablan alsyhi wasilism) has sent ner. Then I set out and came by some children in the market place Sudderly I first someone pulling my shaf from behind. As I turned to look, I saw Rassolubla (Sallablan sajity wasilism) hagging. Fit saked, Anat I did you go where I had sent you'll said, Y so O'Rassolubla (Sallablan sajity wasilism).

Hazzat Anas (Radiyallahu anhu) has related, "I served Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) for teo years from the age of eight. He never flound flault with me for arything I did. If any member of this family scolded me, he use to say "Let him be If anything has been fore ordained, it must come to pass" (Matshat).

Randulda (Saldulhu alayin wasalum) was extremely found of children Throughout his entires search lies on a single incident is found about tim histing or being solvini, midification of hards to found about tim histing or being solvini, midification of hards to people who use to have your four fense, bedding allies for the stake of their flates pride Randulda (Saldalahu sinyah wasalum) was so much affected by hier marardeous trailions that air Aughta he made the Arabs include on the Oak of Allejainees that they would be reduced to the control of the stake of the control of the stake of the control of the stake of the mid-time of the stake of the sta The following incident is concerning the ordeal of an innocent gain who was buttered ative. The people of the tithe of Baru Tamene in pre-Islamic Arabia were most prone towards this inhuman practice. The chief of the tribe, Quisi-bin-Aim, after embracing latern confessed to Rasulullah (Salfallahu slayli wasallam) in the following works.

O Messegger of Allah I a daughter was born to me when I was way from Inome on journey, faising wlorstage of my shence, her mother out of natural unge sawed her for it few days, After the property of the thoughts come to my mind, I shall have to be a father-in-law by giving her off to someone in marriage I shall have to be bear the insult that my daughter will be sensone's wife. How shall I be able to face the people's All my honour and pride will be relief. These thoughts took hold of my mind and sortured me continuously. At least these thoughts crusted my indigation and made devoid of any more parence at all. Then I decided to do away with this signar, of the certain of the continuation from earl of a vancetant Calceded to bury the certains.

I asked my wife to make the oirl ready as I would like to take her to a feast with me My wife gave her a bath, clad her in pretty clothes and made her ready to go with me. The little girl was also hubbling with cheerfulness, thinking that she was accompanying her father on a happy occasion I started her towards the jungle. The child was going with me leaping with joy and pleasure. holding my hand here, getting ahead of me there, prattling to me with queaks of innocent garety and laughter But I had become blind to see and enjoy these innocent acts and was impatient to get rid of her as soon as possible The poor child was absolutely unaware of my sinister intention and followed me merrily At last I stopped at a lovely snot and started dissing the ground The innocent child was surprised to see me doing that and repeatedly asked, "Father, why are you dissing the earth?" But I did not pay any attention to her queries How could she possibly know that I was digging that pit to bury my own cheerful and beautiful daughter in it with my own hands While disging the earth and dust would fall upon my feet and clothes. My daughter would clean the dust from my feet and clothes saying "Father you are spoiling your clothes" But I like a deaf person did not even care to look at her us if I had not heard her at all I continued my vicious tob and dug a pit big enough to serve the purpose Then I sadly threw the innocent child into the nit and hastily began filling it. The poor child was looking at me frightened and surprised She was frantically crying and screening "Father, my dear Father. what is this? What are you doing I have done nothing at all

Father please, why are you liding me in the ground?" But I kept on doing my work like a deaf, dumb and blind person without paying the least attention to her besecching and entreasies. O' Messenger of Allah' I was too cruel and sadistic and too heartless to have pity on her. On the contrawy, after burying my daughter airve I heaved a sigh of relief and came back satisfied that I had saved my hosour and pride from bumiliation.

Hearing this pathetic and beart rendering incident about this beiptess innocent child, Rautulalia (Sallaliahu alayhi wasalism) could not coetrol himself and tears started failing down his checks. While the tears rolled from his eyes he said: "This is extreme cruelty, how can one who does not have pity on others be nittle by Affinish value of the property of the pr terror, desperate for my life, the horrible snake still running after me and drawing closer. I saw an old man, dressed in elegant ciothes, with neh perfumes wafting all around his person, I greeted him saying, "Assallam-o-Alaikum" and he returned my greeting I said. "For the sake of Allah, help me in my misery". He said. "I am too weak to help you against such a mighty foe; it is beyond my powers. But you must so on running, perhaps you may find some help to save you from it". Running wildly I saw a chiff in front of me and climbed it, but on reaching its top, I saw, beyond it, the raging fire of Jahannam, with its most homfying spectacles I was so terrified by the snake, that I ran on till I was afraid I would fall into Ishannam Meanwhile I heard a voice calling aloud, "get back, for, you are not one of them (Jahannamis)" I came away and began to run in the opposite direction. The snake also turned around and came after me. I saw again, the white robed old man and said to him. "Old man, can't you save me from this nython. I asked you before, but you did not help me". The man began to cry and said, "I am too weak to help you against such a mighty snake, but I can tell you that there is a hill nearby where they keep the "sacred trusts" of the Muslims. If you go up that hill, you might find something of yours, kept in trust, which might save you from the snake" I rushed towards the bill, which was round in shape, with a large number of open curtained casements. The casements had golden shutters studded with rich rubies, and most precious iewels, on each shurter hung a curtain made of the rarest silk. When I was going to climb the hill, the angels called aloud "Open the windows and raise the curtains and come out of your closets! Here is an unfortunate man in misery, may be you have with you some "trust" of his, that might help him in his distress". The windows opened at once, the curtains went up, and there issued forth from the casements a host of innocent children, with faces bright as the fall moon. By this time I was utterly despondent, for, the snake had drawn very close to me Now the children called their friends, "Come out quickly all of you, for the snake has come very close to him". Hearing this more children came out of the windows, in large

PREGNANCY

After some time has elapsed, the couple desire that Allah Tasla bless them with a child and thus through, mantial consummation Allah Tasla grants their wish The first stage that follows is that of pregnancy. A person should not be subanual of breign pregnant or treat it as a hig burden, as there are many beautiful virtues and rewards for being pregnant.

Rasululleh (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said. "The woman that dies in her virginity or during her pregnancy or at the time of birth or thereafter (in nifaas) will attain the rank of a martyr".

It is mentioned in another Hadinit than Rasululuh (callathiau sight wastalam) said. One is not please you (O Wemen!) had that when wastalam yast. Ones in or please you (O Wemen!) that when the property of t

Rasulullah (salallahu alaylu wasallam) said: "A woman from her pregnancy till the time of weaning her child is like one protecting the boundaries of the Islamic state. If she passes away during this period she attains the reward of martyrdom".

period she attains the reward of martyrdom".

In another Hadith it is memboned that "The woman who dies of labous pages is regarded as a martyr (shaheedah)".

CORPLACING OF CRIT OPEN

A woman should therefore gladly bear these difficulties patiently and calmly as she will be highly rewarded

Hazrat Mail bin Yasear (radiyalishu ashu) narrates that Rasutullah (salialishu alaybi wasalbun) said. "Marry such women who are loving and produce children (in abundance) because (on the day of Oiyamah) I will vie with other Ummars and be proud of your numbers."

In another Hadith Rasukiliah (saliallahu alayhi wasaliam) said;
"Even the miscarried foctus will drag its mother towards Jannat if she exercised patience with the hope of acquiring reward".

Ramulath (salistabu alaysi wasaliam) aid: "When the woman breast feeds then on every galp of mild the child receives the reward as though site has granted life to a beang and when she weans her child then the angels gat her on her back saying: CONGRATULATIONS! all your past sins have been forgiven, now wast all over noise."

(By sins is intended the minor sins, this is also a great reward.)

DAYS OF PREGNANCY

During this dime great care and pressurious should be adopted. During this stage, may physical sendenceses affect the growth of the child. In the early days of pregnancy, constipation should be avoided as there is a fear of miscarriage. Constipation as a fairly common complaint during pregnancy, Simulated lexatives should be avoided in pregnancy and while breats-fielding. Simulated the studied in pregnancy and while breats-fielding. Simulated in the second of the second of the second of the second of the times can result it as miscarriage.

During this period nausea, vomiting and discomposure is experienced. This induces a desire for sour and salty foods. Some women have a sudden craving for black soil and soap etc. Caution should be taken that no such items are consumed which are detrimental to the health. Also extremely bitter and spicy foods should be avoided During pregnancy simple foods should be eaten that assist in diseasion.

The pregnant woman should remember that giving birth to a noormal child does not lead to so much of weakness as in the case of a miscarriage. fill precautions should be taken or else this weakness will affect her first the rest of her life.

During the early days of pregnancy, very heavy things should not be carried or lifted. Likewise jumping from a high place, hopping, running or any form of physical (pain) strain should be prevented as this may cause excessive bleeding or even a miscarriage. The Islamic education of the child starts when the child is still in the womb of the mother This is through the thoughts that she carries in those days, by the feelings that she has, by the kind of books that she reads, by the kind of company that she keeps and by the kind of things that she hears.

During pregnancy frightening pictures of deformed children or animals should not be seen. One should look at beautiful children, flowers and should smell beautiful fragrances.

Also during pregnancy reading evil books, having evil thoughts, bad intentions, practising of bad liabits and doing sinful works should be avoided or else there is a fear that these evils may effect the unborn child later on. All these have an affect on the unborn child because the mother's pervous system is affecting all the systems of the haby. Although the baby has its own independent systems, remember it is the mother's womb that is carrying the baby and that the baby is being affected by whatever she is thinking, feeling, reading and listening to. It is better and advisable for the mother to be to keep good company, to read good books (the Outsan Sheseef should be read in abundance) and to be at such places where she hears the words of Allah and about our DEEN. It is important to have good feelings, good thoughts and not to carry grudges, have fear of something or be unduly worried about something. One should always remain calm and happy and should not be allowed to be over concerned and allow oneself to be overtaken by grief The thoughts that you generate within yourself will affect the kind of disposition the child will have If you are sad and miserable the child will be equally affected. So remember the environment prior to the child's birth is as important as the environment he is horn into

The names that affect the lives of a person and his descendants is shown in the following Badiff Hazira Sacod bin Musayyb (radivyallahu anhu) relases from his father that his grandfather went to Rasuhllah (saliallahu alpin wasalam) and was seked. "What is your name?" He replied: "Hazi" (meaning sorrow) Rasuhlalla (callallahu alpin wasallam) said was lived meaning sorrow) Rasuhlallah (callallahu alpin wasallam) said var "You are Sahi" (meaning contented) He replied: "I will not change the name my father gave me" I be Masyayib say." Thereafter sorrow was always with us."

Rasubullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) prohibited people from keeping names which contain any element of shirk, like linking Abd to names other that those of Allah. He also forbede pompous and self alonfring names

It is customary to leave the naming of the child to the -father's sister (Foyma), or an awkward name is selected from a Jantry (almanae). This has no place in our teaching and often leads to foolish results which the child must bear forever.

HIDDE INCING OF CHILDREN

Efforts to anglicise or westernise Islamic names are bad and cheap and reveals an un-Islamic attitude. All Muslims should be proud of their names and faith.

If there is a fear that some names will not be pronounced correctly, or only half the name will be talked, then it is better to avoid such names. Take for example, a person atmite is considered to the second of the property of the second of Children should not be called by distorted or westernised amess like Mahmad for Mohammed, Aggie for Ahmed, Solly or Sully for Sulaman, Sam for Adsussamad, Farit, Farit, Farit, Teath or Times for Fastima. Tijl or Katty for Khadig, Judies or Beist for Zubeist, Judie for Zubeist, Judie for Judies Alaso Annada, for Ahmed, Fay for Fastima etc. Also nowadays names are shortened by using English adaphetes which are totally incorrect eg. M D for Mohammed Dawood, S.A. for Sased Ahmed, E.B. for Ethrahide.

It is also common in our society for people to keep names which may sound nice to them, but in reality hive no meaning at all. Such names should not be kept Parents should ensure that when choosing a name for their child, they must do so with the intention that the child will be blessed with the barkat of that name. A name merely sounding nice but having no meaning is thus void of any barkat Examples of such onner are. Rukhsandt

Circumcision (Katna) and Ageega.

The baby could be circumcised on the seventh day. It is mustabab (desirable) that the KATNA be performed before the boy is seven years of age. When circumcising, the helith of the child must be considered. In any case the KATNA must be made before the child is twelve years old.

HERRINGING OF CHILDREN

Imam Ahmed bin Hambal (rahmatullah alay) has stated that Abu Abdullah (may Allah bless him) said that there is no harm if circumcision is done on the seventh day. (after birth)

Hazrat Abu Huraira (radiyallahu anhu) relates that Rasukullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) once said

"Human decency consists of five acts, to get circumcised, to do away with the pubic hair, to do away with the hair under the armpits, to cut the moustache and to clip the nails"

AOFEOA

It is mastabab (desirable) to make AQEEQA and to came the child on the seventh day after birth. AQEEQA safeguards the child from alconsesses and evil effects. Also through the abbasing of AQEEQA, the child shall be saved from all calamities, and when the child grows up he shall not be disoluted into its parents IF AQEEQA is delayed beyond the seventh day then too one should by and make it on any subsequent seventh day.

If the newborn is a boy then 2 skeep or goats should be salaughtered. For agir, one sheep or goat is sufficient The -AQEEQA may be included in the shares of the Qurbani cow or or, if the several day happens to fill during the Qurbani period or if the AQEEQA is delayed till the Qurbani days. Two purts should be included for a son and one part for a daughter. For those who were the property of the AQEEQA of the share of the several days are considered as the salaughter of the several days much the other is no harm.

The conditions regarding the quality and suitability of the AQEEQA animal are the same as those of Qurbani animals Healthy animals with less than one-third ears, eyes and tails damaged or missing could be used. Sheep and goats must be more than one were old and castle must be more than two were old. The AQEEQA meat may be distributed either cooked or uncooked, or relatives or friends could be invited to the home to partake from the meat. It is reported that Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said:

"If anyone has a child born to him and wishes to offer a sacrifice on its behalf, he may offer two sheep for a boy and one sheep for a sirl"

Rasulullah (saltallahu alayki wasallam) said.

"A boy is in pledge for his AQEEQA, sacrifice is made for him on the seventh day, he is given a name and his head is shaved." If AQEEQA is not done on the seventh day, then it is better that it should be performed on any other subsequent seventh day.

Hagrat Muhammad bin Ali bin Fusain quoted Ali bin Abu Talib (radiyaliaha anbu) that Rasulullah (salialiaha alayhi wasaliam) sacrificed a sheep on the seventh day for Hazrar Hasan (radiyaliahu anbu) and said: "Shave his head and give the weight of his bair in silver as sedance."

It is in order for the parents and grandparents to eat the meat of the AOEEOA. (sacrificed animal)

AURRENCING DECHIL DREN

The DUA TO BE OFFERED AT THE TIME OF AQEEQA IS AS FOLLOWS

ٱللَّمُّ هَلَى بَعَقِيقَةُ ...... تَقَيَّلُهُ كُلَّا تَقَبَّلُتَ مِنْ جَيْلُكَ مُحَكَّدُ وَخَلِيلُكَ لِمُلَامِنُهُ وَمُعَالِمُنُومِ وَخُفَالِلُحُمِهُ وَشَعُرُهُالِشَعُرُهُ وَعَظْمُهَا يَعْظُومُ - ٱللَّمُّ تَقَبَّلُهُ.

"O' Allah, this is the AQEEQA of (name of the child should be recited), accept this as Thou has accepted on behalf of your loved one Mohammed (salallahus alayhu vasallam) and your friend EBRAHIM (alayhis salaham). This offering of blood, is the ransom of the blood of the child, flest is the ransom of the flest of the child, and the flest of the child, the hair is the ransom for the hair of the child, and the bones are the ransom for the hair of the child, and the score it."

TAWEEZ FOR THE CHILD

One should remember that Nazz in a reality. It can full upon young or old, mirads and oven plants Just as an outside? Nazz can full upon a child, even the parent's Nazz can full upon their child. To avoid this, whenever one's yoes full upon any beautiful thing, then one should any funtamental thing the same should any funtamental thing the same should be sufficiently and the same should be sufficiently as the same should be suffi

In a Hadith by Hazrat Saeed Khudri (radiyallahu anhu), it is mentioned that Hazrat Fibracel (dayhis salaam) gave the following TAWEEZ to Nabi Kareem (sallallahu alayhi wasallam):

"In the name of Allah I am making dam on you from everything that is harming you and from the evil of every person or from the eyes of a regious person. Allah will oure you".

The following TAWEEZ (dua) has been mentioned in the Hadith for children. Rasulullah (sallallahu elayhi wasaliam) read the following TAWEEZ for Hazzat Hassan and Husain (radiyallahu

"I seek refuge in Allah through his perfect words from every devil, every poisonous creature and influence of every evil eve".

The above taweez should often be recited on the child and it may also be written on paper and sewn into a waterproof doth and the taweez hung around the neck of the child

It has become a custom amongst our people to tie black beads around the wrist of babies many people believe that the beads protect the child from nazr. This custom is NOT an Islamic custom. It is not permissible to adopt this practice.

CLIPPING THE BARV'S NAILS

A baby's nails should be clipped so that he can not hurt himself or others by scratching or poking his fingers in the eyes, which could result in a serious injury

Mothers should ensure that when clipping the baby's nails, it should be clipped according to the Sugnat method

The Sunnat method of clipping the nails is as follows.

Nabi Kareem (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) observed this procedure when cutting his nails

RIGHT BAND:-

LEFT HAND:-

Little finger, ring finger, fore finger, index finger, thumb and lastly the thumb of the right hand

MOTHER AND BABY: SUCKLING THE CHILD

Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) sad "When a woman breast feeds, then on every gulp of milk, she receives the reward as though she has granted file to a being and when she wears her child then the angels pat her on her back saying Congratulations! all your past sins have been foreiven, now start all over assis in shave been foreiven, now start all over assis!"

The child has a right to be fed on the mother's milk. It is this bounty of the mother for which the Quraan emphasises on the child to treat the mother with exceptional love and kindness, in the mother with exceptional love and kindness, in the mother for this service.

Mother's rulk is the natural flood for the baby. Almaphty Allah sees to if that baby's growth and beath are affectuarded by providing the mother with abundance of the most complete flood for the baby's requirements. Her own breast milk is naturally obtained and needs no preparations. If one titled to bey it, jr will be most executed.

The infart derives much benefit from the mother's milk. Benicles monitoring, board of affication between the mother and called are strengthened. Mother's milk is also a spiritual and ehicial are strengthened. Mother's milk is also a spiritual and ehicial containment for the child it cheeps if also strengthened to provide been consultances to of the child. The mother not only provides been consultances to offer the child. The mother to more than the child with a shad though of the mother to inculcate into the child with each drop of the milk the concept of the onestees of Alih, bove for Rassinlah (salladias skyli is seasilates) and devention for lates made in the child with the child with

Sucking the child plays a very important role in making the mother love her children deeply. This is the reason why they are always prepared to make whatever sacrifices the time and the circumstances require for their chaldren it is amportant to develop a close bond with the child and bence in Islamic law, suckling (breast feeding) is encouraged.

Rasuluilah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) advised mothers to suckle their children, and said that for doing this they would be rewarded here and in the hereafter by Almighty Allah. He told them

"And for the first sip of her milk which she gives to her child, the mother sets the reward equivalent to giving life to a person"

Moreover he (salialiahu alayhi wasaliam) has equalled a suciding mother to a dutiful warrior who vigorously guards the frontiers and she will achieve the status of a martyr if the dies during this period

Denying the child the right to be suckled without any valid reason is unfair and unjust and below the dignity of a mother. Mothers who do not suckle their children due to fau of being deformed on the suckle their children due to fau of being deformed on the suckle the suckless ones who do not deserve to be called mother. There is no the suckless of the suckless of Rasulullah (salialtahu alayhi wasallam) has reprimanded and warned such heartless women against the terrible punishment to be meted out to them by Allah. Describing the events of the night of Ascension, he parasted:

"Then they took me further ahead and I saw some women whose breasts were being continuously biften by the snakes On asking about the identity of these women, I was told that those were the women who did not suckly their children."

UDDD THE INC OF CUIT DOCK

Mülliers who do not suckle their children gentrerately will not get proper love, affinity and regard from them, because they did not transfer their mills in their veins. These children could not feel the soothing and invigorating warmf of their mother's las while suckling the elixir of life from their breast. Naturally these children will not have the inner and spiritual attachment with their mothers.

MEDICAL OPINION ON MOTRER'S MILK. In the developed countries where nothers are avoiding the auckling of their children due to their strange notions of modernum and emancipation, the standard of physical health is fulling. Mental health is also failing

After childbirth the mother's milk contains colostrum for some days. This important substance belos immensely in the baby's except as a contains viramin A in abundance. But after a particular period, colostrum loses this valuable vitamin. Avoidance of suckling the child right from the beginning will deprive him of this vitamin which will result in deficient growth. Besides, colostrum also helps habies resist external injection to which they are exposed and suscentible. The new-hom babies are usually exposed to the infection of the lungs and the throat. They often develop pneumonia or dipatheria etc. in their early stages of life which might prove fatal for them. But if they receive adequate quantities of colostrum, they develop resistance to such deadly infections. The infants who die during the first month of their birth are usually found to be deficient in this important substance Scientists have tried to reproduce mother's milk in the laboratory but fail to get the exact formula -

When the child puts his thumb or finger in the mouth and begins to lick it, this means that the child is hungry The child should not be left to lie on one side and also the child should not be parted on the head as this sould lead to the head becoming flat on one side and could cause the falling of hisr on that side Also by looking constantly on one side, the child could become soulint eved.

The mother should not lie on her side and feed the child as the milk could flow into the child's ears. The mother should not feed the child with her breast open as this is immodest and this can cause Narr upon the child.

During the period of breast feeding, the mother should keep her body and clothes clean, especially the breasts should be kept clean as certain babies are very sensitive and with even the slightest bad odour, they vornit. The mother does not understand why the child is vorniting while in reality it is her fault as her body is giving off a bad odour and this results in the child vomiting

The child should not be fed very fast but should be fed slowly by playing with him. By feeding the child fast, the child may become unnaturally fat.

Immediately after feeding the child, the child should not be given a bath if the mother's bair is wet she should not feed the child, as in doing so the child may get a cold

The mother should make a full effort to feed the child with her milk as this is the best and natural milk for the child

To be able to breast feed successfully, the mother should have a good det. Particular attention to high protein diet eg eating meat, eggs, fish, milk as well as green and yellow vegetables. Liquids are important such as water and liquid piaces. Avoid drogs, cigaretes and alcohol By eating cold things, the child could get a cold and by eating hot things the child could develop a risk.

DESCRIPTION OF CHILDREN

Let us examine some of the advantages of breast feeding for the baby. It provides complete nourishment, vitamins, ninerals and iron that the baby needs for the first four to six months

Breast milk contains anti-bodies which fight infection especially in the respiratory and digestive tract, that is the baby does not get a cold and diarrhoes easily.

Breast Feeding encourages close relationship between mother and child It prevents allergies. Suckling of breast promotes good jaw and mouth development. Breast milk is the only natural milk for the baby.

Now let us examine some of the advantages of breast feeding for the mother. It provides a series of pricile and fulfillment. It is convenient because it is easily available at the right temperature and formula. It helps the womb to return to its normal size. It provides some protection against breast cancer. Breast Feeding is economical.

If due to some reason, the mother is unable to breast feed the child, then the best substitute is goat's milk, thereafter cow's milk. (remove cream from milk.)

If milk is given through a bottle, then the bottle should be washed thoroughly or else the milk would curdle or it may smell and this could cause the child to young.

To breastfeed the child beyond two years is not permissible.
Therefore six months before that, effort should be made to teach the child to leave the breast

The child should not be left hungry as this would cause the child to put hungful things into his mouth.

TIPRPHICING OF CUIT DREW

During teething, the child becomes weak and could get diarrhoea. For this a doctor should be consulted. The child should be given a hard, clean rubber to bite upon.

Remember! the greater the purity of the mother, the purer the milk, as it is part of her body. When Imam Shafi (rahmatullah alay) was asked the reason for his exceptional intelligence, he renlied:

"My mother never breastfeed me without wadhu"

Therefore before a mother commences with breastfeeding her  $e^{i k H_0}$ ,  $i k \epsilon$  should ensure that  $i k \epsilon$  has wuthur (abution) Before frequency the fiding the dual before eating should be recited and after completing feeding the child, the mother should recite the dual after eatinu.

It is essential for the mother to remain pure both inwardly and outwardly. Whatever she does or says, the child will see and hear and subconsciously will take in everything and later in his life these impressions will replay like a tape recorder. It is stated in a Hadith

What is learnt in childhood is like something engraved on a stone.

Regarding that, the following anocolor describes it best. When Hazart Sheik al-Hadith Moulana Zakariya sahib's father was weared, he remembered five rukes' of the Qurram. It should be pondered as to how much Maulana Yalaya's revered mother must have been reading the Holy Qurram that the small boy learned by heart a quarier of a chapter of the Qurram by merely bearing. This lady had committed the Quram to memory after her marriage.

LIPBRINGING OF CHILDRE

Any lady whose breasts do not yield milk, should be made to drink water wherein the inscription was soaked. Her breasts will abound in milk (Insha-Allah)

FASTING AND SUCKLING THE BABY

If a suckling mother has a strong feeling that fasting would be harmful to the baby or would keep it hungry on account of being underfied or it would be harmful to herself, she is permitted to abandon fasting.

If a wet nurse can be arranged for the baby and the baby takes to her breast, the mother should not abandon the fast, however if the baby does not take to the nurse, the mother may abandon fasting

If the wet nurse has a strong feeling that fasting would be harmful to her or to the suckling, she is allowed to postpone fasting

If a woman is employed as a wet nurse on a day in Ramadhaan when she has already had the intention of fasting, she is permitted to break the fast, which she will have to observe on another day without exhibition.

VOUR CHILD'S EDUCATION

After having children the first and foremost deare of parents is to prepare then for a bright and successful fitture. That every parent topes and wishes that their children be pious with excellent character but this can only be achieved if the correct method towards this goal is adopted and the right environment created from the very beginning. It is very important to note that the spiritual upbringing is far more important than the physical upbringing.

Although the environment prior to the child's birth is very important, so to oil the environment into which the child is born, as the actual updrivinging starts in the mother's lap which is the first AMDARASAH for the child Although the thirde plays at MADARASH to the child Although the thirde plays are considered in the child although the thirde plays are considered in the case of the child although the contributes the greate share and plays the best role in the early training and editionist on of the children. The children is the case of the children in the case of the child although the children is the case of the start port fore and stacked to ther 'This inskets the nother more capable of educating and training the children in the cost proper way.

كالمُعَالَّة فَ لَدُ كَالَّعَلَى الْفَطَرِيَّ

The meaning of this is: Every child is born pare. It is the environment created by his prient but determines his future. It is absolutely accessary to understand that before you expect your absolutely accessary to understand that before you expect your facilities to have heavy of Islam, the presents have to be practising Muslims themselves: Parents should set a good example in front of their children. Therefore for the parents to be practising Muslims is of utmost importance for the felamic upokinging of their children. Readeding parents, its poem is best sixted.

"The parent is like a mirror, the reflection it gives, the child adopts. If the reflection is good, the child is good. If the reflection is bad, the child is bad"

Remember, the entire future of the child depends entirely on the parent's teachings, training and environment in which the parent's bring up their child. The home environment and the parent's upbringing of the child either makes or mars the child's future. If the home environment is Islamic, then the child will be religiously inclined but if the home environment is unfalamic, then the ch will develop r-relations traits and habits in himself. Because the child does not come from a solid Islamic home, he is unaware of the gems and jewels of Islam due to lack of Islamic knowledge and education. Copper, brass and gravel of other religions look dazzling and beautiful in his eyes. The home environment and the parent's upbringing of the child either makes or destroys the future of the child if the child hears music and watches television then he will want to imitate the singers and the T V stars On the other hand, if the words of Allah Taa'la (t.e the Ouraan) keeps failing in his ears and the lives of Rasulullah (saljailahu alaylu wassillam) and the Sahaaha (radivallahu anhum) are related to him. then he will develop good qualities and try to imitate Rasulullah (sallallahn slavin wasallam) and the Sahaaha (radivallahu anhum) Remember, if your home environment is not Islamic, how do you expert your child to become a fine, refined and respectable Muslim servent of Allah?

If reigious education and training are given from childbood, the child on growing up will definitely understand the rights of the parents and elders and will respect them. If the child has been depreved of religious education and training by carelest and enginetial parents, these children will not discharge the rights that the children are ill-mannered, dischedient and disreppendin! The clause of their dischedients of the children are ill-mannered, dischedient and disreppendin! The clause of their disobedience is only the fluid of the parents, as they on account of their greet of two reflyt things and love for money, kent their children blank in religious education. To earn their livelihood and to fill their bellies, parents are keeping their children aloof from religious education, and instead involve them in profane education and worldly pursuits, thus making them irreligious. There is none to educate these innocent children and to train and inculcate Islamic morals into them. How will the fear of Allah be instilled into their minds? Since attaining the age of sensitivity, the love of money, beautiful clothes and houses, fast cars etc. have entered his heart and he now remains occupied day and night with the thought of these things only and keeps trying to acquire them. He cares not if in acquiring these things, he may he depriving or destroying the rights of others. In his greed of acquiring worldly goods, high medical, legal and engineering degrees, he is ready to waste the invaluable wealth of IMAAN. Such men can cause ruin to the community and in creating a struggle for power, are in fact proving to be the disintegrators of institutions. What now can the religion and community expect. from this kind of upbringing? How can the parents then say that the youth "the fresh blood" do not obey the parents, do not help the weak, the widows and the orphans, and do not take interest in works concerning the massagids and madagris? The parents themselves have not taught them to do these acts. The young people are even ignorant of the reward for obeying their parents and of the nunishment for disobeying them. How many Ahaadsth do they know? And how many Ahaadith have they been asked to memorise? Not a single answer will be received to any of these questions. Then what else can you expect from such ignorant youth?

Nowadays parents any O' look at my son, he shows no respect to his parents or they say look at what my drughter has done, she has no DEEN in her. But alsa! do they ever ask themselves why? Why has my child no DEEN in him? The parents eventually refuse to take the blame for this root so chagghter's wall actions. But, ponder, whose fault is this? This fault is none other than the narcent themselves. To then it is definitely not their fault as they brought bair child up, naturued kim, gave the best food, the best citches, took him wherever he wanted says him plenty of money, and did whatever he wanted, as he was their special child. But the wasted was the second of the s

Amoungst westerners when their parents reach old age they no longer care for them. Instead in a cruei way, they place them in old age homes. The very same parents who brought them up, fed them, clothed them, gave them everything, the same mother who gave birth to him, nurtured him, spent sleepless nights, and now all of a sudden they are considered too much of a burden to be cared for. This my dear reader, is the western attitude and if you as a parent fail to impart deen education and training to your children, then they will definitely receive education and influences of a different standard. A way of the westerners! and due to your negligence you may also be thrown out by your own yery special child The difference between Muslims and non-Muslims is that Muslims impart religious education and training to their children. thus making them auccessful in both the worldly life and the life of the bereafter. So remember parent's at is YOU who make a big difference | It is your teachings and tarbiyat which will mould your child into a respectable Islamic conscious person

But Alas! the parent, harpe upon their own rights and gramble against the children Likewise, think of the basic cause whereby the children became disobedient No doubt the parents have a right to claim the fulfilment of their rights from their children. But since the parents are unaware of the children's rights and their—" hightful demand, they do not discharge their own responsibility and as a consequence the children become dischedient. It was the parents primary dust to give religious education and training to the children, but instead of that they made them become involved in worldly purguis

However by paying attention to the crucial necessity of giving, selegious engagination during childhood, an effort should be made to create an encotion and ferrour for IMAAN in the hearts of the children. The imparting of religious education will make them conscious of Allah's rights, the rights of elders, widows, orphans and parents, whereby they will consider the discharging of these rights as an act of reword and the cause of success and prosperity in the world and religion.

But if children are kept away from religious education, then what we are observing today is definitely going to happen. Parents and elders who do not discharge the children's rights and miss the opportunity of acquiting themselves of their responsibility, will not find the children fabilities them parent's rights when they grow up. Such children rather than being useful will prove to be harmful to the community.

The following two stories (anecdotes) refer to those parents who full to impart deen; education and training to their children. Read them carefully and take lesson from them!

Abul Laih Samzquadi (R. A) har related that a man brought his so to lairard uniar (rindyalluh anabi) and sud "Ny too does not obey me, he is disobedient to me' Hearing thas Hazzat Umar (indyalluh anabi) soil "O' bor, don't you know what rights a falther has on his son"? Thereafter he narrated the rights of a falther on the cididren. The boy said. "O' Commander of the faithful! Do the claddren too have say rights on their father."

Hazzat Umar (indigalluhu anab) said "Yes' the children too have rights on their father". "What are those rights"? asked the boy. Hazrat Umar (radivallabu anhu) replied: "First of all, he should search for a good mother for his son. He should marry with a virtuous, religious women, and must not marry any woman of questionable nature and doubtful character. The second right is that when he begets a child, he should name it with a good name, and the third right of the child is that he should impart religious knowledge to him and teach the Oursan". The boy said: "O' Commander of the faithful! my father has not discharged any of these rights. Firstly, the woman who is my mother is a negress, a slave woman that he has bought for 400 dirhams. Sac is a neophyte Muslim slave woman who is quite ignorant of religious education, Islamic civil manners and murals. It is in her laps that I have passed my infancy. She has not given me any religious education. What should I do? Secondly, they have not named me with a good name. They have named me Jo'al meaning black, ugly man. I should have been given a good name which was my right. but my father did not discharge his responsibility towards me. The third is the right of religious education, which they did not give me at all. Now whatever decising you give. I will accept at"

Just ponder over it. A great man like Hazzat Umar (radiyallalus ashu) at the very mention of whose name popele shulder even today said: "O' boy's father, first of all, you have been neglectful regarding the boy's rights which you did not discharge said now you tell me that your son does not obey you. GET OUT! It is you who have disobeyed first."

Pooder over Hazart Uma'r (radiyallaha umla) docision. Just as where given up discharging the retponsibility regarding our children, what is our condition? Then we consider our children to be dischedient and unworthy. Purers should remember that they became dischedient first. Children ure a trust, and this responsibility our upon the parents and they did not discharge it, but missand they engaged their children'in worldly things. So if parents remind their children during their childhood itself about religious responsibility and make an effort to attach him to religion, then Instha-Allah, by such traumg, the children will become virtuous and pious. So if you want to live an honourable life in this world, engage your children in religious education.

Yes! the reality here is that religious education was not given to his son in his young days, with the result he is unaware of his father's rights

It is therefore the right of every child upon the parents that he be given a sound islamic education and be taught good manners. This in turn will ensure that they lead a proper Islamic life and be saved from hardships in this world, and more important in the hereafter.

(Surah Tahreem)
Hazzat Ali (radiyullahu alahu) artepreta tha to mean that you must save your family by giving them good education and good manners. Therefore to make children's lives successful according to standards set by falam, parents should devotedly train and coluctate them. The mother in particular is responsible for the correct upbringing of the cital If is stated in the Haidha about the mother" and she is a shepherdees over the house of the husband and of his children, and just is answerable. Basic Ishanic education and good moral could only be taught and practiced at home Therefore the first MADRASAIR for the child is the mother's lap. # TORRESTAGING OF CHILDREN

In another Hadith it is mentioned that Rasulullah (Sallallahu alayhi wasallam) sud

If parents bring up their children Islamically, is will be rogarded as Sadaque-Lañay, it simply means that if the parents impart deemle education to their children and the children practise upon is, it would be a continuous reward for the parents after their death, Ou the contrary, if the parent did not impart religious education, it will be regarded a Azaab---Barry, Medaning that whatever evil the children do, the parents will get continuous azaab (emendement) feet in their their children do.

If you impart deen education to the children, on growing up they will act upon religion and would become the source of religious education for others, thus the parents will be rewarded for all these things continuously in the hereafter by Allah Tar'la for their efforts.

Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasailam) said:

"When a person dies, his deeds also come to an end. But there are three things done by him for which be goes on getting the revent from Allah. First, is he who leaves some charitable trust for the benefit of the people. Secondly, he leaves behind some knowledge which is continuously benefiting the people and thirdly he leaves behind a vious, bulk who soes on craving for his frontyments"

On another occasion Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasatlam) said.

"The parents of a person who acquired extensive knowledge of the Holy Quram and practised accordingly will be crowned on the day of Orwannah and this crown will shine more than the bright sun which lightens all the houses of the world".

DEBRINGING OF CHILDREN

According to another Hadith parrated by Hazrat Buraidah (radivallahu anha). Rasuhilah (selialiahu alayhi wasailam) said:

The parents of a person who studied, learned and practised the Holy Qurasa will wear a shiming grown which will shine like the sun and his parents will wear such precious dresses which will cost more than the total riches of the world. Then they will be surprised by this honour and they will enquire for what are they honoured? They will be told that this is the reward for the knowledge of the Holy Oursen which their children acquired".

Thus Resulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) has induced that parents should make their children learn and practice the Holy child should lack the religious education, he will not be able to understand and appreciate the Islamic way of life. It is important for every child to adopt the habit of living his whole life according to the education of Islamic knowledge acquired. It also implies that parents who neglect the education and training of their children will be questioned and punished for their neoligence.

Virtuous children will pray for the welfare of their deceased parents. In the first instance, the effort to make children virtuous in itself is a deed of perpetual benefit and, as long as they do good deeds, the parents will keep receiving the blessings automatically Their prayers for the benefit of their parent will be an additional permanent treasure for the latter

In a book called "Raudh" is a story of a pious lady known as Bahitah, who was regular in her prayers. At the time of her death she raised her head towards beaven and exclaimed. "O' the one. who is my only treasure and provider for life and death, I pray, do not disgrace me at the time of death and save me from the horrors of the grave." After her death, her son made it a practice to visit her grave every Friday and read the Ourgan there, offering the olessings for his mother, as well as for all those buried in the graveyard

One day, he saw his mother in a dream and asked her, how she was? The mother replied, "The severity of death is extremely harsh. By the grace of Allah Taala, I am most comfortable in the grave with a hed of sweet basil and silken cushions, and the treatment eiven to me will last till Oiyaamah". The son asked her if he could be of any service to her? She realied. "Do not give up coming to me on Fridays and reading the Oursan. On your arrival. all the dwellers of the graveyard come to me and tell me that you have arrived. Your visit to the graveyard is a source of great pleasure for me". The how said that he had visited the place recollarly on Fordays. One day he saw in a dream that a very high gathering of men and women came to him and he asked them who they were? They said that they were the dwelters of such and such graveyard and they had come to thank him for his Friday visits to them and his prayers for their forgiveness by Allah Taa'la that pleased them most. They requested him to keep up that practice. which be continued most deligently

PARENTS and THEIR ROLE IN THE UPRRINGING OF CHILDREN

Education starts right from the birth of a chief. Rather the first few years are currency important and rightly called the formative years of life. Unfortunately, parents fail to give any importance to the age of rishney, abthough this is a time of great importance. For at this age, the child is in a pure state. Parents think that the child morther understands nor learns applying, beaned they do not mind. But all such things get inscribed on the tender heart and mind of the child.

Therefore, parents should always user, good words and guasic from other should be always the good words and gardening should particularly diver their asteroise to Islamic things, for Allah Tarfa says, "Allah is the owner of Irveiblood and loss any profit. Not a leaf is string which is life (Allah's) order. Alloh is the giver of themour, subjects always and engine and all sailuide considers in foots of the child, these Islamic teachings will be insorted upon that pure mind to firmly that bey will not be officed from a five end and the part mind to firmly that bey will not be officed from a, even

We understand from this Hadith as Imam Ghazafi (rahmatullah alay) writes that education imparted during childhood is like an engraving on a stone, the stone might break up but the engraving will not be obliverated Similarly, the teachings imparted to the young child from the mother's lap, with the passing of some time will not be forgotten.

As Rasuldiah (salialiahu dayhi wasaliam) said:"Acquire knowledge from the cradie to the grave".

The knowledge that is imparted to the child in his tender years is easily inhibited and penetrative. Hence Reschuldth (stallfalba alayliv wasalban) has said that fifth (IMAAN) and beliefs should be imparted to the child from his very early infancy during the very time that he passes in the cradle. An example of this is regarding Hazart Shike-Li-Hadith Maulane Zakarly Sahiby father, who when he was being weaned, remembered five ruleus of the Oursan.

It is mentioned in a Hadith that Alqamah (R.A.) used to say that the "knowledge acquired by me during my youth is such that is as if I am seeing it on paper"

The motal here is that the limbs of the body are strong during childhood. The mental power is also strong thus when the power of memory is strong, things memorised will not be forgotten for a long time.

Hazzat Sabiq Berberi (R. A) used to say that knowledge acquired during childhood is very beneficial, but it is not beneficial when acquired after having grown up. Just as green boughts can be straightened easily, after drying up they cannot be straightened Also Mansur (R. A) use to say. "When the day is wer toys can be made, but when it has dried up, nothing can be made from it".

Therefore parents should take advantage of their child's infancy by imparting to them good Islamic education and training which will help them and the parents in the worldly life as well as in the barreeffer.

IMPORTANCE OF SUNNATS

As a Muslim it is essential amonest other things, for one to have a sound knowledge concerning Rambullah (sallallah) slavhi wassilam) for around his life revolves every teaching of Islam re it is the parent's duty to impart to their children as much knowledge as they can regarding the character, ways and lifestyle of our beloved Nahi Kareem (salfallahu alayhi wasallam) Also in this way narrous would be instilling into their children's hearts, the true love and respect for Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasalfam). Instead of them wanting to imitate so and so, by listening to the hemitiful character of Panulullah (sallallahu alauhi was allow) they would want to imitate him. Parests should evoluin to their children who Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) is, the reason for his Nabuwat (prophet bond) and also stories relating to his character, showing his tolerance, patience, forbearance, sacrifice etc. These stories should repeatedly be told to them. In this way, they will grow up loving Rusulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) and desiring to follow His (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) way of life. Once the love for Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) is inculcated into them, the importance of following his sunnats should be raught to them. It is mentioned in the Oursan يَخْفُ (كُوُرُكُوْ بُكُوُ Say (O' Mohammed) if you love Allah, follow me, Allah will love you and forgive your sins".

This ayat commands us to follow in the footsteps of our Nabi Kareem (sallalahu alayhi wasallani), for which we will derive two benefits viz: we will become Allah's beloved and our sins will be forgiven

LIBERTHOLING OF CRIT THEFE

Thus parents should bring up their children in a simple and practical way, and the best way is which they can achieve simplicity is by following Randshids (adlashids hays) wastelline. Our children of nodes you doubt to perfect examples of our DEEN, Our children of nodes you doubt to perfect examples of our DEEN, Madism waste to bring a dishelierer into the fold of Islam, but at the same time also widthe this to Decome a practising Mathem. But how do you expect a new Mustlim to be practical and to become a Mustlim on only by sense that also by this good Amusi (callions), if we Modalim could be proposed to the practical part of the proposed way to the following countries are not practically and callions and many the practical part of the proposed part of th

Our ways and dreasing should enable others to identify us as hullims. But Alasi noweday do to our unidatinic dreasing, we make poor examples for our new Muslem brothers shd sisters in Islam. When the new Muslim is told that he has to were knew; complete hijaab, they calmiy say; that they have seen other. Muslims not wearing the fishing dreas and wish to know why.

Therefore, in order to make our children the perfect examples of Islam, a lot of emphasis has been made to teach them the SUNNATS of Rasulultah (satlatha alayhi wasallam), (which is the second fundamental source of Islam) By following the SUNNATS of Rasulultah (satlatha alayhi wasallam) lies a fourtain of a perfect way of life and a model of guidance and wasdom

The Quraan establishes that the sunnat of Rasuiullah (salfallahu alayhi wasalam) is insuired (by) and suided by Allah

"Nor does he say of his own desire, it is nothing but revelation that is revealed"

In another syst of the Qursan, it is mentioned.

"Whoever obeys Rasulullah (saliallahu alayhi wasallam) he indeed obeys Allah".

By following the SUNNATS of Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam), the love of Allah can be obtained.

Imam Ghazali (rahmatullah alay) maintains that in the total observance of and dedication to the sunnat and the life of Nabi Kareem (sallalahu alayhi wasallam) in all its aepects, including such personal habits of his such as eating, drinking and sleeping is the key to schada. (total bliss)

Our beloved Nabi Kareem (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) has also emphasised upon us to practice his SUNNATS by saying "That person who loves my sunnat loves me, and he will be with me in Jannat" (paradise)

Nowadays with the increasing number of evils and vices, a barrier is created against the practice of the support of Rasubullah

HERRINGING OF CHILDREN

(sallallahu alayhi wasallam). It is therefore essential that every effort be made to drive out these evils and vices from our homes and so enable us and our children to implement the suanah.

We must never forget the fact that children are quick to imitate, taking lessons from their fitseds (speen) and elders. Therefore a humble appeal is made to every mother and father that, if your claim of low for your child in two, then display that love by following, and teaching your children to follow, the noble SUNNA'L 50 our Propler, Mohammed (salialiha larger SUNNA'L 50 our Propler, Mohammed (salialiha larger children in this world and the hereafter, and also our homes will beein settints the fono (fight) of Sunnats

BASIC ISLAMIC TRAINING and CLEANLINESS EDUCATION

The importance of cleaniness should be taught to children from a tender age. Children should repeatedly be tool that Muslims stay pask at all times, and should not stay napask. Allah is pask and loves pask. To stay pask (clean) is half of MAAN. Thus parents should stways keep their children pask, so that they remain beetly wand source barskst.

When the child has reached the age of two or more and if the child releves of acolor uruse) himself wherever he desired, then child releves of acolor uruse) himself wherever he distinct, then the child should be shown where he has relived himself and warrand or beaten highly. An engainy should be made as to why be meased the place. Therefore, initially the child should be asked after regular inserval within the wants to go to the toolet In this way the child will learn that he should rell someone when he wants to go to the roulet re of the low way the child will learn that he should rell someone when he wants to go to the roulet re of the low will be heatern.

Some parents beat their children so severely and reprimand them so harshly for relieving themselves at incorrect places that the poor child even when wanting to relieve himself, does not do so out of fear. This can also lead to sicknesses.

If the child does meas the floor etc. this should be cleaned immediately. Also if while eating the child messes, then he should be reprinanted and the mess should be cleaned immediately.

At the time of isting, the mother should ensure that the child does not fine towards the qibia. When going to the toilet our Nabi (salfullahu akyhi wasallam) always wore shoes and covered his head Parents should ensure and train their children in doing the very same and at the same time tell them that it is Rasulullah's (salfullahu akyhi wasallam) mansat foractice).

OWNERS OF CHILD PRODUCT

In this way all the SUNNATS partaining to triting should betaught. The child blood be taught the date for entering the rollet and that he should enter the total with the left floor at come out with the riging floor. Also emphases should be made to reach the with the riging floor. Also emphases should be made to tench the in the totale. Parents should be ensured that the child does not and when turnising. This could reads in the sphalmag about of unfee drops. The positishment for this should be emphased to the conseal floor uniter. After realizing conseed, the child should be taught that string a should be made on the string that the should be made on the conseal floor uniter. After realizing conseed, the child should be raught that string a should be made on perperforming listing (use of water) after urinating, otherwise, once was proved they will be key in performing this and of the consequence of the consequence of the child of the should be that only the consequence of the string of the consequence of the consequence of the consequence of the string of the consequence of t

WHEN THE CHILD STARTS TALKING

When the child begins talking he should first be made to recite the kalima:

الكالة إلاالله محتكد ترسون الله

"There is none worthy of worship but Allah and Mohammed (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) is His messenger".

The kalima should be taught with its translation so that from the very beginning the child has a clear idea and belief in the oneness of Almanters Allah

It has been narrated in a Hadith that when any member of Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) family started talking, he use to teach him the second ayart from surah Furqan (chapter 25:2), wherein the basic Islamic principle of the oneness of Allah has been narrated. It is as follow:

الَّذَىٰ لَدُمُلُكُ السَّاطِ وَالْآنِنِ وَلَمُّ يَتَخَذُ وَلَمُّا وَلَمُنِكِنُ لَهُ قَدِيكِ فِي الْمُلْكِ وَخَلَقَ كُلُّ شَكَّمُ وَقَدُيكِنُ لَهُ قَدِينًا

"He, who has the Kingdom of heavens and the earth and He has not taken (to himself) any son, and there is none who shares with Him the Kingdom, and He created everything and then He planned (for everything) a fixed measure".

DESCRIPTION OF CHILDREN

This brief verse is one of the most compact and comprehensive verses from the Holy Qursan. If a child is taught this verse with its meaning from a very young age he would definitely prove himself a true Musism throughout his whole life. In every way noossible parents should first draw their child's attention towards Allah. Parents should inculcate this true belief in their children that Allah is the giver and doer of everything and thus children should be taught to rectite Beimillah before doing anything Children should be told that if they act upon this, they will be successful in what they are doing. Also in this way, Insha-Allat, the quality of takwa (fear of Allah) would come into them.

Moreover, children should be taught Rasulullah (sallallaha alayla wasallam) has meant for different occasions this going to be, eating and drinking, wearing new clothes, going for ratural calls and corning back, beginning and ending fast etc. They should also be taught about SALAAT which will be discussed in the following pages.

Parents should ensure that the Quraan is taught to their children from a very young age. It is a fact that in childbood the memory is at its bost. Anything memorised at that time is seldous frogotten. If children are made to memorise the Quraan, they will be able to do so easily and quickly.

Many parents waste this valuable time of childhood by engaging their children in idle (useless) talk, by also teaching them poems like Jack and fill, Baa Baa, Black sheep, instead of teaching them Islamic related things

It is imperative that children be taught their name, father's name, address and telephone number so that in the event of getting lost etc (may Allah forbid) they may be guided home safely.

LOVE, UPBRINGING & PRECAUTION

views said: "Leader of the faithful! whenever I enter the house, the immates get stunned and everytode is put to silence." Hazrat Umar (radivallahu anbu) spoke with great regres and said: "Aamir, how unfortunates is it the even being a Muslam you do not know that you should treat your kith and fon with affection and kindreas?"

Children should be treated with sympathy and consideration at all times and their requirements should be satisfied as far as possible. This will not only make them happy but will also develop sentiments of obedience and service in them

Once Hazzat Marswiya (neliyalibu subu) akedi Hazzat Ahara Subu (neliyalibu subu) a koto de to elizoring should be trasted? The companion of Rassulibla (salidlabat salyal wasalism) said. We are from the earth which is soft and harmless, our existence for them is like the sky which provides them with shade (protection), and through them we are able to perform arrevilous tasks:

Thus if they ask you something give it to them generously and if and when they feel and ry to make them happy As a result of this and when they feel and ry to make them happy As a result of this they will develop love for you and appreciate your paternal affection. Never become an unbearable burden upon them lest they become disguisted with you and even desire your demise and dislike your association.

The love and affection for children is a test for their parents. Rassibility (asialhahu alayh wassian) emphasised that one should keep one's love and affection for children within normal and reasonable limits and should not less it become a hindrance in the way of Allah's DEEN. Allah has created love in the hearts of parents and has also werned them to be careful of their children. Thus warning is given due to the fact that these very children cometines brine destruction to their parents.

Such pureus for undue love for their children, lose all the differentiation between good and back right and wrong, due and tundles, and vice and virtue. To powded more and more comfort and leasures for their children they undulgs is earning some offerent on the common power of the common tender of the provide more and more comforts and avaries for our children borne our enteries when our love for them tends us to immoral and irreligious activities. So we should always keep it in mind that we should restrain our love for our children up to the limits improved by Allah Tara's and His propher, Exashablish (sallallbut alwyh wasallam). For these reasons the children are restroored in the Flob Curran as a tree or trial for their instems.

Children along with wealth are a test. The Quraan mentions this concept in these words.

"O' believer, do not betray Allah and His messenger, nor violate your trusts knowingly, and know that your worldly goods and children are a test for you, and Allah has plenty for giving you as a resurer!"

Again in surah Taghabun, we read these words:

"Your riches and your children may be but a trial".

These verses remind parents of the dangers involved in excessive love and attachment to their children to the extent that they sometimes find it difficult to maintain the standard of morality, goodness and justice demanded by their faith. It is therefore necessary for them to draw a, line between the love for children and the love for their ideology and the way of tile. In the children initial years he should be given the full attention of his parents or else this sam will affer but for its entire life.

It is essential that the child gets used to others so that in case the mother is taken ill the child will not find it difficult to adapt to someone electrons.

At the time of Magrib children should be brought inside the house for this is the time when the jumants come out. If the child is left outside at this time, the child could enter the house with the jimant. When darkness gathers children can be sent outside for the prohibition of symptoms outdoors is now over.

Do not ty to quieten the child by saying things that would frighten him kie. The pollow will carely you, "et. For a titu way the child will become a coward or a timed person." This also fright in its likely that the child will be come a coward or a timed person. This also fright in its likely that this facer may person them to each after their attaining adulthood. Such children are usually rendered incapable correct things about the best of the child. If however, the owning is due to any ban, then treatment should not fear the crying as this is exercise for the child. If however, the owing is due to any pain, then treatment should be ought to story in a day of the child.

It should be understood and accepted that Nazr is a fact. Nazr has been mentioned about under the heading "TAWEEZ for the child".

YOUR CHILD'S DRESSING

Children should always be kept neat and clean. They should wear nest and clean clothes, but should avoid nome and extravagance. It is injentioned

"Extravagance is the brother of shavtaan" Expensive and gaudy clothes are likely to spoil the habits of a child. It is mentioned in a Hadith: "Verily simplicity is part of IMAAN".

wears his itaar below his ankles".

By teaching children simplicity from a young age they would grow up simple and practical Muslims shunning extravagance completely.

The parents should teach the child to dress according to shariat from a tender age. If the child is a girl, she should be taught to wear a dress and ijaar and scarf from the age of two years onwards. Also, whatever dress is put on for her should have long sleeves as the wrists (hands) of a woman is her satr. The satr of a woman is her whole body excepting her face, hands and feet.

If the child is a boy, he should be taught to wear a kurra and his inar must be worn above his ankles. Explain to him why be has to wear a kurta. Tell him that it is the way of our beloved Nabi Kareem (salialiahu alayhi wasaliam) and the command of Allah Taa'la Hazrat Umme Salmah (Radivalsahu anha) mentions in a Hadith that Rasulullah (sallallahu alaybi wasallam) liked the kurta (long shirt) the most from all clothes. Also explain to him that on the day of Oiyaamah we will be raised with those whom we followed in this world. Parents should also emphasise the punishment for wearing the jingr below the ankles. As it is mentioned in a Hadith that Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said.

"Allah will not look at that person on the day of Oiyaamah, who

It is mentioned in a Hadith that once Rasulullah (sallailahu alayhi wasallam) passed by Ma'mar (radiyallahu)and his thighs were exposed. He said: 'O' Ma'mar, cover your thighs for verily the thighs are objects ones.'

In another Hadrih Hazzat Ali (radiyallahu anhu) reported that Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasalam) said "O' Ali do not keep your thighs exposed, and do not look at the thigh of any living man or dear them"

Parents should therefore ensure that their children dress up according to shariat from a young age so that as they grow up they would not feel out of place to dress up Islamically in our un-labaric reciery.

It is not permissible for Muslim males to wear clothes of silk or any red and bright orange (saffron) colour garments. It is mentioned in a Hadith that Rasululiah (sallallahu alaylu wasallam) said "Wearing of silk and gold has been made lawful for the females of my followers and unlawful for the males". In another Fraciti it is mentioned that Rasulullah (sallalishu alayhi wasallam) said:

"Do not wear silk because he who puts on silk garments in this life shall have no share of it in the hereafter"

This Hadish clearly refers to men. Parents should encourage their sons to wear white clothing and discourage them from wearing, brightly coloured clothes as women wear such dothing. Our Naib Kerzens (salallaulau alspik susaillaul) loved wearing white clothes and encouraged us to wear white garments as it is pure and most olegant. The wearing of red clothes by men is problished. It is reported to be makrooth-e-bazzihi (abomznable - affecting-punity) for malet to vewer red clothes.

Abu Juhaifa (radiyallahu anhu) nerrates that he saw Resubullah (salialahu sayii wasallam) waring rad colotea and the shune of his cali, is still before my eyes. The narrator of this Fadith say "My understanding is that these colotes had red embrodery on them." Thus Rasubullah (salialahu slayis wasallam) disliked the wearing of red oftoties for me.

For women it is haraam to put on such clothes through which the body remains visible. To wear body fitting garments whereby certain parts of the female body become exposed is also HARAAM.

Teaching children to dress according to the sharist from a young age, pleys a very important role later in the child's first. # UPARINGING OF CHILDREN

It is mentioned in a Hadith thin Rasubillah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) cursed the man who puts on women's clothing and the woman who puts on men's clothing

Parents should teach their children the SUNNATS of dressing and the duas pertaining to dressing.

Parents should ensure that they refrain from clothing their children with clothes that have pictures of animate things on 3. By wearing such clothes, the angels of mercy do not come close to the child. Some people intentionally buy such clothes for their children and feel nothing wrong in them. To support this intentional wrong attitude, mention will be made of our Nabi Kareen (sallallah alayhi wasallam) and his noble companions incidents pertaining to the profibilition of pictures of animate objects

Abu Talha (radiyallahu anhu) said that Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasailam) said.

"Angels do not enter a house in which there is a dog or a picture".

Hazrat Ayesha (radiyallahu anha) said: "Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) returned from a journey and I had screened my door with a curtain having on it pictures of winged horses. He commanded my to response it."

give life to what they tried to create". He then said: "Angels-do. "I not enter the house in which there is a picture".

A person came to Ibn Abbas (radiyallahu anhu) and said "I am a person who paints pictures, therefore give me a Verdiet about them". Ibn Abbas (radiyallahu annu) said. 'Come near mel". He approached near, so much so that Ibn Abbas (radivallabu unhu) placed his hand upon his head and said. "I shall narrate to you what I heard from Rasululiah (salialiahu aiayti wasaliam)*. I heard Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) say: "Ali the makers of pictures will be in the fire of hell. A soul will be breathed in every picture prepared by the picture maker and it will torment him in the fire of hell" Ibn Abbas (radivallahu anhu) then said. "If you have to do it at all, then paint pictures of trees and lifeless objects". Hazrat Abu Huraira (radivallahu anhu) reported that Rasulullai, (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said: "Jibraeel (alayhis salsam) came to me and said. I came to you last night but was prevented from entering because there were pictures at the door and a fine screen with pictures on it, and there was a dog in the house Cut off the head of the picture so that it may resemble a tree. And cut up the screen and convert it into pillows. And have the dog driven out of the house".

Hazza Abu Huraira (radiyallahu anhu) reported that Rasshallah (callailahu alahi) in usasilan) said "A neck from hell will emerge on the day of Qiyaarnah. It will have two eyes, two ears and a tongue it will say I have been entrusted to toment three types of people – every rebellious oppressor, everyone who associated another in the worship of Allah, and the picture makers'.

Ibn Abbas (radiyallahu ashu) reported that Rasulullah (salisliahu alayhi wasallam) said "The most grievous punishment on the day of Qiyaamah will be meted out to one who killed a prophet, one who killed one of his parents, the picture makers and a learned man who did not benefit from his knowledge"

ETIQUETTES and CHARACTER

Parents should draw their child's attention towards Alah before doing arthing par, airing, driving etc. Dildren should be taught to with their hands before eating and they should be told that it is the summer of Kasubullah (salallahs asapra wasalam). They should be taught that they are not eating merely to fill their belifes, but they should make this intention that they are entire per superties of the state of the will be precising upon the sunsate of our Neils. Koren (stallahs)

Children should be taught the posture of sitting when eating, one knee up or as one sits in namazor squasting. Having recited the dua before eating, esting should be started with the right hand and if there is only one dish to eat from, then it (food) should be eaten off one the nexes side. The chall should be particularly sustructed not to eat from the middle of the food or from the sides of others if they are sharing a latis of flow with others.

While eating they should eat peacefully and calmly without haste. They should not fear that the other person will finish the food and they could be left hungry. By such behaviour barakat goes away from the face.

If a gram or two or a morsel falls down, it should be picked up, cleaned and caten, as one does not know in which part of the food there is barrake. After having finished exting, the child should be instructed to lick his fingers, as again one does not know in which part of the food there is barrake. Thereafter the advarrages of washing the hands should be shown and the child should be made to regist the during after eating.

Similarly the sunnat way of drinking water should be taught, i.e one should sit down with the glass in the right hand and drink from it in three sips after reciting Bismillah, (removing the glass from the mouth at each breath and reciting Al-hamduillah at each draught.)

Normally when a child is given chocolates, blacuits etc. he breitks it and messes the floor with it. To avoid this, the food this citie. chocolste etc.) should be placed in a bowl and the child should be made to sit on the floor and eat it. If pieces of food do fall on the floor, then it should be picked up as leaving it on the floor is disrespect to the food. The child should also be taught not to throw food on the floor If he does so, then he should be commanded to pick it up

Too much of sweets should not be given to the child as this causes worms. A small quantity of sugar should be put into the child's tea and milk. The child should be taught that after having sweets etc.to eargle his mouth as this will help prevent decay of the teeth. It should be emphasised to the child to use miswaak after meals, especially at night. In the morning before feeding the child, the child should be taught to go to the toilet first and thereafter to make miswaak and to wash his face. The SUNNATS upon awakening should be taught to the child.

Whenever giving the child anything to est or drink, he should be taught to say Bismillah... before eating or drinking it The child should be taught to receive and to give with the right hand, and should be encouraged to say "Jazakallah" on receiving anything.

When the child is given anything, it should be told to the child that it is from Allah Taala

When the child is eating he should not be allowed to take food in both hands. Similarly children should be taught to eat with the right hand only. It has been narrated on the authority of Hazzat Umar bin Abi Salama (radivallabu anhu) that he was a boy under the protection of Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasailam), and as my hand use to roum at large in the dish. He said to me "Mention Allah's name, ear with your right hand and eat from what is next to you. I always followed this way of eating after Rasulullah (sallaha elayh) wasallam) directed me."

Parents should explain to their child the need and importance of facing Allahir, name before eating. As it is mentioned in a Hadith, Hazmr Ayesha (radiyullahi anha) has reported that Rasuhllah, Hazmr Ayesha (radiyullahi anha) has reported that Rasuhllah, (sallathin alayih wasallam) asid. "When one of you begins to eat, he should mention Allah Taxla's name. If he forgets to do so in the bemmine, he should say.

"In the name of Allah at the beginning and at the end of it"

Children should be told that if one does not recite Bismillah before eating, then shaystas also parties of the flood But when one remembers one should then read the above dus. When the above das to recited, shaystan vomits all the flood out, when the showe das the recited, shaystan vomits all the flood out, the mentioned in a Hadish by Umayya bin Mudchsh (radiyulisha sha) that Raschallah (adalishad salysis wassalim) was sattling while a meremated from his flood but one morted. When he raised it to his mouth he said

(In the name of Allah, the first and the last) Rasulullah (sallallahu allahi wasallan) smiled and said: "Shaytaan was continuously cating with him. Then when he took Allah Taz'la's name, shaytaan vomited all that which was in his stomach".

Thereafter, when he has completed eating he can of the flood he parket, the temps is does not know in which near of the flood he parket, the temps is

Also it should be emphasised to children that they should not to recline (lean) and eat. Hazrat Juhaifa Ahab bin Ahdullah (radiyakahu anku) saad that Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasaltam) said "Tho not recline and eat".

The child should be taught to ait and drink. Also not to drink continuously in one drangli like a came. The child should not breather into a vessel not blow into it. Many children are in a habit breather into a vessel not blow into it. Many children are in a habit was the food. Therefore parents should teach their child to dish was the food. Therefore parents should teach their child to dish out a finite food and finish all the food in the pieter and not spare anything for shaytam. When you finish all your food the utenat or you delivery from bell (Jahannam)

It is the nature of things that all living creatures wake up with the break of dawn and little children should also wake up at this time, that is the time when Allah Taella makes the systems wake up and that is the time when Allah Taella makes the systems wake up and that is the time for us to get up. Children should be encouraged to wake up early daily If we put them (the little ones) to sleep again and shove the bottle into their mouths to make them go to sleep, they will get into the habit of not waking up early - this must never be done! When the child gets up, pick him up, clean him, see to his needs and put him by your adea say on perform nameaz. Let him see you performing nameaz. You may think that he does not understand but he is seeing you and it is being recorded in his mind. Place him on your lap when reading the Qurann loudly and let him hear you read the Qurann. The words of the Qurann are miraculous, they are massical. Let that make on into his cars from that early use.

When children start speaking well they should be taught about SALAAT, prayers and supplications. They should be made to learn the correct manner of performing SALAAT and all the verses and essentials of SALAAT with translation so that they could also understand the meaning of what they say.

Great care should be taken that they pronounce the words correctly because words misprounced in this age cannot be easily corrected later on. When the shift begins to walk, then we should say "come baby" (easer of child) be tax make wardsu, let us read namaze". He may foot around and sit on your back when you go into sajds - let him bo it for soon he will learn. Then sowly at the age of 3407 he will have acquired the habit of performing

Rasululiah (salialiahu alayhi wasalism) said

"Instruct (command) your children to perform namaaz when they are seven years old and beat them if they don't perform namaaz when they are ten years of see".

Nover make excuses for your child - don't say, "ix is holiday time or Saturday/Sunday!". Don't say "yoor child" he gets up early everyday and now why must I wake itim up early during the holiday or weekands, let him sleepl poor child REMEMBER! if we do that then we must not complain if he does not get up for Fair on the weekdays also. - A man who gives charity and he conceals it to such an extend that his left hand does not know what his right hand speads.

- It is mentioned in another Hadith that Hazrat Maaz-bin-Jabal (Radiyallahu anhu) narrated the Prophet (Sallallahu alsihe wasallam) enjoined upon me ten things viz,
- Do not ascribe anything as a partner to Allah, though you may be slain or burnt alive
- Do not disobey your parents, though you may have to part with your wife or your entire wealth.
- Do not neglect Fardh SALAAT intentionally, for Allah is free from obligation to a person who neglects Fardh SALAAT intentionally.

The child should be taught to make salaam on coming in front of someone. Also a child should be taught to say wa-alakum salaam, fi-amsanalish, Allah hafiz etc when bidding a person off as the child is ma soom (sinless), his duss are accepted.

The child should be taught to share. In this way the child learn to become generous. Therefore the children give food, clothing and money to the poor and needy as this will increase generously within him. (But foce) this in midd that what is given is yours (parents), at what is theirs cannot be given until attaining reasurity.)

Children have the habit of wanting what other children have With wisdom the child should be taught not to demand from others as this bad habit is the result of greed and jealousy. If the child becomes obstinate, do not succumb to fits desire so that he discards this woll habit.

When giving one's child anything in the presence of other children ensure that the other children are also given something.

LIPBRINGING OF CHILDREN

Do not give the child anything and everything he demands as this is a bad labit and will cause the child to become diagraphential to ... his elders

If the child shows displeasure at being refused anything by sitting in a corner, refusing to eat and talk, then this habit should be stopped mamediately by being harsh and by not submitting to the demands of the child

During meal times children should be prohibited from going to other peoples' houses whereby it will become necessary upon them to feed the child and this may put them into inconversince Before breakfast the child should be taught to read the kalma, duas etc., so when he grows up he Will have the habit of reciting the Quraun before breakfast.

Anything a child does in concealment, be it eating, playing or any pastime, if it is something bad then discourage him and if it be something good like eating then let him eat operly.

Never speak in front of the child using slang or vulgar language. When speaking to the child or others in front of the child then speak using good words. In this way the child's language will improve. Never speak to the child in baby language

Do not do anything immodest or wrong in front of a child for that would become an example for him to follow despite how young or old be may be, it will surface within him after attaining maturity.

The child should not be insulted eg. you silly, stupid etc. This makes the child become a coward, hot-headed, short tempered and also the child learns to speak in this manner to those younger and elder than him.

This child's honour and pride should be taken into consideration. He should not be constantly and unnecessarily beaten and reprimended, insulted or degraded etc, as this could cause the child to become stubborn and disobedient. Also the child could develop a similar character it is musting, thating others to.

First create trust for you (the parent) in the heart of the child Thereafter it will become very easy to correct and reprimand the child

Children should be kept away from bad company. Bad friends and bad companyors are the msjor factor in their lives, which turns them towards evil and corrupt ways and habits Even the powerful influence of the parcets is often lost to the detrimental influence of bad social friends. Regarding good and bad company, Hazzar Abu Muss (radiyalishu anhu) narrates that Rasuhullah (adialiahu akachi wasulam).

"The similifude of a pious companion and an evil companion is a an ann standing with mask (this is the similifude of a pious companion), and a man stoking a furnace (this is the similifude of a new companion). The man with the musk will give you some or (if he does not give) then you will at least gain its fragrance while in the stoker of the furnace will burn your clothing (if a spark or fire falls on you) or (if he does not turn you) then at least the smoke of the fire will reach you! (Bukhan and Muslim).

Even if one does not derive the full benefit of good company, one will gain to a certain degree Likewise, even if the evil company does not fully harm one, will to a certain extent be affected by the evil To counteract this measure, children should rather be introduced to children of known good habits and ways, particularly of those who have prous prients. Parents should not make their children accustomed to watching games and plays. Very popular nowadays are video games in cafes etc., thus parents should ensure that their children don't waste money on such games, as this can also result in gambling. The Qurean Majeed condernes liquor and gambling, branding these evils as the abomination of shaytaan. Thus it is said. "Verily liquor and gambling are the abomination (evil) of shaytaan." Numerous forms of sambling are to be found. One particular type of gambling, is the children's game of playing marbles. In gambling more than one party tender wealth or any material item which is taken or won by one or more persons. Some win and others lose wealth or material commodities. In the game of marbles more than one child tender the stakes. Some lose and some win The SHART definition of gambling (maisar) antly applies to this child's game. Although this game is viewed as a mere play among children, it is in fact gambling in terms of the shariat The habit of gambling is created in the child from a very tender age by allowing him to play this game. The evil qualities of greed, quarrelling, deceit and hooliganism are ingrained into children by indulgence in this game of gambling

Parents should therefore prevent their children from this game of gambling (maisar) Since marbles are used for only the game of

For example, let him walk for a while or do gymnastic exercises and assist in the house, garden and shop if it is a girl, then let her help in the menial work of the house as this will prevent her from looking down on menial work.

Some obliden put their hands in the pockets of others, they put off peoples' spectacles, open the cupboards when they are that to a omeone's house. These are all and habits and thus children should be stopped from such abits. Children should be taught to respect one and all. Sometimes

Some people take the child in their laps and teach them to hit others eg brother etc. This is not good, for in doing so, respect for ciders shall come out of the child's heart.

The child should not be frightened with dangerous items like knives, matches etc. Even playfully the child should not be shown a knife as there is a fear that the child would do the same with another child and this may prove to be dangerous.

DESCRIPTION OF CONTARES

The mother should not frighten the child by saying: "wait for your father to come!" This takes out the fear that the child has for the mother. This is incorrect, it can weaken the child and make him-insecure.

Immediately after punishing the child, do not start playing, joking or show affection or pity to the child. The child would lose fear for the parents in this way.

A mother should approach her child by means of the father

If there is fighting amongst the children, you should not side with your children mistir. You should watch whether your children are to be bluned, if so, then taking into consideration future mistires, you should not you called the children with the children with the children with the children was the children with the children was the children with the children was the correct them.

Do not punish children while in anger Either remove them from your presence when you are angry or go away. Later when the anger has subsided, reflect thrice and then only mete out the anger transferrent.

When the need arises to punish, do not use a heavy stick nor fists.

Do not kick the child nor slap the child on the face. Also refrain from hitting on the head.

The child should not be told: "do not behave like so and so". This makes the child begin to look down and think evil of that person. This also teaches the child backbring.

An inferiority complex should not be created in the child 'This is done when the child is told. "you are useless!, what are you good fort" are. Instead the child should be encouraged.

UPBRINGING OF CHILDREN

The child, should be usught that whatever is given to him eg, mayer, in e should, fearn to have trust in his parents and thus it as should, fear to have trust in his parents and thus it as at that be given to them to look after. This money should be taken as at that be given to them to look after. This money should be taken the parents and it is should not be kept by them. When parents take their challens to anyone's house, they should be given this adjuste on to leave the house without the parents' permission.

On the wall or behind the door, hooks should be fitted where the child can reach and can hook his dothes upon at and also meeting in the child should be advised to use these books to bang his clothes unstead of throwing it around. In this way the child learns to become responsible and not to lead a huphazard and careless life.

It should be emphasised to the child that whenever he uses the toilet, he should wear shoes. Children should be taught that when they remove their shoes, they should leave it neatly in a corner.

Parents should not discuss their poverty and weaknesses in front of their child as this causes an inferiority complex in the child.

When your child has wronged someone or is at fault, never act partially. Do not side with your child, especially in his presence

If a child breaks some object or hits someone, then let an appropriate punishment be meted out to him, to pamper him in such circumstances is to lose him

Now and then ask them about this to that they remember The benefit of this is that, Allah forbid, should they get lost, they will be able to state their identity to the one who finds them. In this way, they will be returned home safely

Children who are studying should be given such nutrition which is sood for the brain.

Be watchful of your children's behaviour towards servants and the children of servants. Ensure that they do not trouble the servants or their children. On account of their inferior social rank, they may not complain, but in their hearts they will curse. Even if they do not curse, the misfortune of sin and injustice will be task.

It is a sin to allow adolescent children to remain idle as this would lead them to mischief

The most destructive agency for the growing child in this age is undoubtedly the evil of television. But numerous Muslim parents are absolutely bind to this reality which evon intelligent non-Muslims have realised and concoded. Some parents have been deserving themselves by introducing the television into their homes outerabley "to keep their children off, the steesets", Bug this is nothing other than a snare of shaytain. A child cannot be neared fatamically by exposing him to the object of moral-fills and evil which is disablayed on the television screen. It will not avail such parents to shed tears of reger when finally they reasise that their children have already toppied over the brank of immorality. The biame will be squarely their burden.

Furthermore, the absence of a husband creates an aura of loneliness at home and the wife, becoming weary of the resulting boredom, yearns for companionship and soon becomes an easy prey as the playmate of shaytaan who has a thousand and one sides to offer.

The responsibility of the disastrous consequences that follow including a mimed future for one's children rests squarely on the shoulders of the father who is blandly interested in this personal pleasures which also prevents him from realising that it is that very self-centred and selfish attitude of this which is the primary cause of all the domestic problems and misteries.

Unfortunately such fathers having only their own interests at heart, tend to forget that only chaldren who are obedient, well reared and thoroughly fortified through Islamic training would prove useful to them in their old age

However, the worldly pains and difficulties is no comparison to the torrures and punishments of the hereafter. Here again, the selfish husband and father would suffer great loss because having created fickleness within his family circle through his attitude, the chances of Esaate Sawab (renittance of rewards) by his children and wife would be very limited, if et all.

It is never too late for fathers' to carefully reflect and consider if they are guilty and then to change their behaviour as this would be the most wise and beneficial step to take.

Parents should not argue and fight in the presence of one's child.

NOTE: Parents must avoid all arguments in front of children. All differences should be discussed in the privacy of one's bedroom. It is about and myopic to involve children in the disputes of parents and reconvenes these to take disputes.

Children need both the tender love of their mother as well as the effectionst exharate hailding and disciplinary guidance of a father in order to develop into such citizens that can make meaningful contributions to secler, instead of becoming parasites depending upon handous. They need to grow strong-willed able enough to seer their boast through stormy waters. May Allah make every home a pluesant, happy environment reminiscent of Janual (Aument).

TELMING TRUE & CHARACTER BUILDING STORIES TO THE CHILDREN

Children are usually interested in listening to stories during the period of their childhood. Sometimes they are so interested in them thill they want to adon't these characters which they like most in these stories. So the parents should take care in the selection of such stories and anecdotes for their children. They should also select meaningful, constructive and healthy stories so that they could teach desired lessons to their children through them Particularly they should be told various events in an interesting way, from the life of Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam), religious personalities and national beroes to motivate them towards emulating the virtues contained in those true stories It is a very effective way of teaching Unfortunately, ev now, some of the parents and others mislead and missuide the children by telling them the traditional stories about magic, genii. demons, fairies witches and other imaginary and mythological characters. These stereo-type stories are extremely damaging to the innocent and tender minds of children. They make t cowards and afraid of nonexisting things. This is a slow poison which injects the minds of children and makes them superstitious throughout their whole lives. Such unfounded fears get hold of their minds and no later education or reasoning can remove these fears from their brains. They lose the spirit of adventure and courage. Belief in one God . Allah teaches us to fear none save Allah, but these imaginary stories make the innocent children victims of unfounded fears. The sooner we do away with such stories, the better it will belt!!

Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) had great love for his daughter and son Ebrahim (who died only sixteen, seventeen months after birth) and his grandsons, but whenever he saw anything done contrary to the divine commandments, he used to revent it strictly. He said "When you retire to bed at night say thrice with concentration, with your heart and not with your tongue (1) Aliah-o-Maci (2) Aliah-o-nazeroon ilayva (3) Allah-o-shahidi. The first words mean "Allah's mercy and help are with me". The second and third words mean "Allah sees me and my works. Allah is with me" I recited this several nights. Thereafter Linformed him. After some days he told me to recite it seven times at hedtime. I did so. After some days he asked me to recite it eleven times. My heart then began to feel its sweetness and relish. After one year my maternal uncle told me. "Persist in doing so. Keep reciting it till death, till you go to the grave. It will benefit you in the world and the hereafter"

After some years I began to feel its relish in the secret spiritual substance. (Latifa-e-Sirr) My uncle said. 'Can a person disobey Allah if Allah be with him? Keep yourself away from disobedience to Allah" Thereafter I began to live in seclusion. Then I was sent to the maktah (primary school). I was afraid that by going to the maktab my peace of mind would be disturbed. But a condition was made with the teacher that I would go for a short while and would be allowed to so home after reading and reciting the lessons before him. At the age of six or seven, I committed the whole Curaan to memory. I began to fast round the year. For twelve years my food consisted of barley bread only I then went to Basis and then to Abudan to Abu Halvh Hamzah Ibn Abdullah and, having got a satisfactory explanation to my question from him, I stayed with him for a long while. 10th STORY

Sobaib (radivallahu anhu) reported that Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said. There lived a king before you and he had a court magician. As the magician arew up, he said to the king: I have grown old, send some young boy to me so that I could teach him magic. The king sent him a young hoy so that he could train him (in magic). On his way to the magician, the young man found a monk sitting there. The young man listened to his (monk's) talks and was impressed by it. It became his habit that on his way to the magician he met the monk and sat there and he came to the magician late. The magician beat him because of delay. He made a complaint of that to the monk and he said to him. When you feel afraid of the massician, say, members of my family had detained me And when you feel airaid of your family you should say the magician had detained one. It so become dithat there came a buse beast (of prey) and it blocked the way of the people, and the young boy said. I will come to know today whether the magician is superior or the monk is superior. He picked up a stone and said O' Aliah if the affair of the monk is dearer to Thee than the affairs of the magician, cause death to this animal so that the people should be able to move about freely. He threw that stone towards it and killed led it and the people began to move about (on the path freely) The young man came to that monk and informed him and the monk said: O' boy! today you are superior to me. Your affairs have come to a stage where I find that you would be soon out to trial, and in case you are put to a trial don't give my clue That young man began to treat the blind and those suffering from leprosy and he in fact began to cure people from (all kinds) of illness. When a companion of the king who had some blind heard about him, he came to him with numerous gifts and said. If you cure me .- all these things collected together here would be yours. He replied: I myself do not cure anyone. It is Allah who cures and if you affirm faith in Allah, I shall also supplicate to Allah to cure you. He affirmed his faith in Allah and Allah cured him and he came to the king and he sat by his side as he used to sit before The king said to him: Who restored your evesight? He said, my lord! Thereupon he said: It means that your lord is one hesides me He said my lord and your lord is Allah, so the king took hold of him and tormented him until he gave a clue of the hoy. The young man was thus summoned and the king said to the boy: O' boy! it has been conveyed to me that you have become so much proficient in your masse that you cure the blind and those suffering from Jeprosy and you do such and such things Thecomon he said. I do not care anyone it is Allah who cares The king took hold of the hoy and tormented him. So he cave a clue of the monk. The monk was thus summoned and it was said to him you should turn back from your religion. He, however, refused to do so. He ordered for a saw to be brought, (and when it was done) the king placed it in the middle of his head and tore it

Then the courtier of the king was brought and it was said to him. Turn back from your religion. Herefulled to do so, and the saw was placed in the maist of this head and he split is until if fill into 2 part. Then the how you sat irrugalle and it was said to him the your control of the control of the said to the said to the control of the courtiers. He again ed him to some of his courters and said; take him and carry him in a small hoat and when you reach the middle of the sea, add him to resounce his religion, but if he does not resounce his religion, throw him into the water. So they took him and he said O' Allah save me from them and what they want to do. Soon after the host turned over and they drowned and he came walking to the king, and the king said to him. What has beenened to your companions? He said: Allah has saved me from them, and he said to the king. You cannot kill me until you do what I ask you to do. And he said: What is that? He said: You should gather people in a plain and hang me by the trunk (of a tree). Then take hold of an arrow from the quiver and say. In the name of Allah, the lord of the worlds, then shoot an arrow. If you do that you would be able to kill me. So the king called the people in an open plain and tied him (the boy) to the trunk of a tree. He took hold of an errow in the bow and then said: In the name of Allah, the Lord of the young boy, he shot an arrow and it hit his temple. He (the boy) placed his hands upon the temple where the arrow had hit him and he died. The people said, we affirm our faith in the lord of this young man. The courtiers came to the king and said to him: do you see that Allah has actually done what you signed at averting They (the people) have affirmed their faith in the Lord The king commanded that ditches be dug at important points in the path When these ditches were dug, and the fire was lit in them, it was said to the people; he who would not turn back from his the boy's) religion would be thrown into therein or it would be said to them to jump in that The people courted death but did not renounce their religion till a woman came with her child and she felt hesitant in jumping into the fire and the child said to her. ## 11th STORY

It is reported by Hazzat Abu Hursira (rudiyallahu anhu) that Hazzat Hasan (radiyallahu anhu) picked up a dry date from the dates received as sadage and put it into his mouth. Rasulullah (sallallahu slayhi wasallan) promptly said: "Throw it! throw it! don't you know that sadasa is unlawkii for usi (Bukhati, Muslim)

Hence the Ulema have written that it is JHARAM for parents to attitue their sons with silken clothes and gold and silver ornaments, those parents who do so will be guilly

Similarly, the Ulema have stated that if mothers, sisters, maternal sunts etc. stand small children facing the qibla or with their backs towards it for defecation and urination, these elderly persons will be guilty of the san of showing disrespect to the qiblab

The above stories mentioned so far are sufficient as examples. Rasubiliah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) had so much love for his children, but whenever he witnessed any work contrary to the commandments of the shariah, he used to correct it immediately.

If we pay fiell attention like this to the children's education, it is hoped that love for faith and religion would be created in their hearts and minds, and they could be of help to the faith and religion; in the future.

Most tactfully parents should explain to their children their purpose on seath Allah has nent man to seath, to test him, and therefore Allah has laid down certain roles which have to be fulfilled. Man has two duties to use the things on earth correctly and secondly, when using the things on earth, he must fulfil the commandments of Allah Taals. To fulfil these duties, knowledge is important If a person has no knowledge, he would not know how to use the things on earth correctly, so that he could pass that test which Allah has put him in. Take sailing in a rhip for example: you use the water to resh your destination, but you make sure that water does not enter, otherwise if it does, the ship will ultimately ship. Similarly, we whom see fiving in this world should use the world so reach our destination (just as he water so our hearts for the world was the ship of the world was our hearts for the water so

Here is a story representing a man's love for the dunya with the cosult be became reglectful of the commandments of Allah Tag'a.

One day he was walking in the jungle when suddenly behind him anneared a vicious lion. Seeing the lion, he ran as fast as he could until he reached a tree. He was terrified. He hung onto a branch overlooking a well, hongo that now he was safe from the lion. His everight then fell in the well, and to his horror, a crocodile with its enormous mouth open was awaining from He became more frightened and kept on thinking how neglectful he was of the things around him Thereafter he saw a woodpecker pecking the branch on which he was hanging. His fear increased even more. He says to himself. If I jump the crocodile will gat me and if the crocodile does not get me, the line surely will Suddenly honey drips onto his lips. Forgetting he is in danger, he licks the honey and emove it. He forgets about the lion, crocodile and woodnecker. When the woodnecker completes necking at the branch, he fulls into the well and thus the crocodile eats him. He was unable to get away from the lion. The woodnecker was nacking at his life and each time the supplementer was nacking his if became shorter. The well was his prove and the honey was his world. So you see by him enjoying the sweets of the world, he became neglectful of Allah Taa'la.

From a tender use, the fiss of Allah should be instilled in the child's mind for if this is created then on growing up this wouldprevent the child from najazi things. The child should be taught that wherever he is, Allah is gausting over this and Allah knows all that he does There is an incident regarding a child (student) having fear of Allah.

Incident Once an ustantly gave each of his students a bird and told them to look for a secluded area and kill the bird. All the students did so excepting one. The ustantly asked the child as to why he did not kill his bird. The child said that wherever he went there were people present and when he did find a spot where there were no people, he knew that Allah Taa'la was watching him.

In Umar's (radiyallahu anhu) time a person was arcested by the police for drinking in Ramadhana. When he was brought before Hazrat Umar (radiyallahu anhu), he said to him "Woe to you! Even our children are keeping fiss in this month".

He was punished with eighty stripes and was basished from Madina forever.

CHILDREN ARE MADE TO FAST:

Rubbayi - binti - Mewgz says;

"Once Rasciullah (saliallahu alayti wasallam) enjoined on us to fast on the 10th of Muharram. Since then we have always being fasting on that day. Even the children were made to fast with us.

THE PRINCIPLO OF CHILDREN

When they cried out of hunger, we diverted them with toys made of cotton flakes till the time of liftsar"

We learn from this Hadith that the nursing mothers of those days would not reed when infants during the fax. No doubt they could afford all this as their general health and endurance were decidedly of much higher standard than ours But, are we really doing what we can easily bear? Surely we should not impose on our children whist they cannot start but the with the waste that with what they can easily endure to enable them to gain more and more strength for doing Allai's service as they crow up.

Now she emigrated to Madina when she was only eight. She should have been much younger at the revelation of this early Maccan verse. This clearly shows her great zeal and devotion for lalamic knowledge right from her childhood.

campaign Randullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) inspected them at some distance to ensure that nothing was lacking in men and confirment. It was here that he usually returned to Madius all those tender aged boys who had come out with the army in their zesi to fight for Islam. While going for Uhid, Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) carried out this inspection just outside Madina He ordered the young boys to go back. Among them were Abdullah bin Umar, Zaid bin Thabit, Usama bin Zaid, Zaid hin Argam, Bara bin Azib, Amar bin Hazam, Usaid bin Zahir Ucabah bin Aus. Abu Sa'id Khudri, Samurah bin Jundah and Rafe bin Khudasi. All of them had just entered their teens. "What is your name?" The person said. "Zakwan" Rasulullah (sallallahu alaybi wasallam) said: "Ail right You take your seat". Rasulallah (sailallahu alavhi wasallam) then inquired. "Who else is volunteering to guard my tent for tonight?" A voice: "I O'Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasailam)!" Rasuiullah (sallailah) alaybi wasailam) sad: "Who are you?" The voice "Abu Saba" (father of Saba) Rasulullah (sallallatu alayhi wasallam) said "All right. Sit down!" He inquired for the third time: "Who will be the third man to guard my tent tonight?" Again came a voice from the crowd. "I, O' Rasulullah (sallaliahu alayhi wasallam)!" Rasulullah (sallaliahu alayhi wasallam) said. "Your name?" The voice "Ibn Abdilqais (son of Ahdul Ons)". Rasulullah (sallallah) alayhi wasallam) said "All right, YOU also sit down". Then Rasulullah (sallallahu alavhi wasaliam) hade all the three volunteers to come to him. Only one nerson came forward. Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) blessed him with his prayers and allowed him to guard the tent. He kept watching the tent all night long.

Just look how eager the Sahaha (radiyallahu anhum) were to face death for the sake of Allah and His Rasul (sallallahu alaylu wasallam?) The children and adults, young and old, men and women, all were intoxicated with the same spirit of sacrifice and denotine.

Rafto bin Khudaji had offered to fight in Badr too, but he was not permitted In Uhud, however, he was allowed to fight for the first time. Since then he had been participating in almost all the compaignes in Uhud, he had an arrow stack in this breast. When it was drawn out a small remnant of its point remnanced inside his body. This caused the wound which eventually proved fatal, to appear again in his old age.

Although this was an occasion of buttle and knowledge of Quranhad no bearing on the issue, yet Rasaludish (salladisha alayhi wasaliam) gave preference to Zeld (radispalisha anal) for his Quran. #### ABU SA'ID KHUDRES RESTRAINT.

Abu Sa'id Khudri (radiyallahu azhu) saya. "I was presented to Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) by my father for Uhud when I was intreen. My father recommended me saying." O' Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam)! He has a very good body. His bones are very well developed."

Rasululla (sallallahu alayli wasilam) looked at me again and sagain and finally rejected me due to my young age. My father however participated in the battle and was killed. He left me nothing to live on. I went to Rasulhalla (sallallatu alayli wasilam) to seek for some financial help from lam. Before I could express myself: ne addressed ne asying: "As Safell whosover seeks restrant from Him gets it. And whosover seeks wealth from Him wall surely set if!

After hearing this I returned home without making any request to him. Among the young Sahaaba there is nobody endowed with so much knowledge and learning as Ahu Safid (radivallabu anhu)

Look at the restraint of Abu Sa'd (raffyyddaba arthu) at such a young age. As we know, he had look in this father in Ubid, who land left him nothing to live on and therefore he fully deserved help, yet a few worst for Skanblulfa (sallathan slaysh) wealtim) stopped him from begging. Can a person much older than him show such a strength of therefore? In fact the persons selected by Allah for the realty deserve that honorar. This is why Renabilish (sallahan salsy) wealthy has said:

SALAMAH-BIN-AKWAH FACES THE BANDITS

Ghabab was a small village about four or five miles from Madina Rasulullah's (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) camels were sent to that place for grazing Abdur Rahman Fazari, with the help of a few disbelievers, killed the person looking after the camels and took them away. The handits were riding the horses, and all of them were armed. Salamah-bin-Alwa (radivallahu anitu) was going on foot in the morning with his bow and arrows, when he happened to see the bandits. He was only a-boy but he ran very first. It is said that he could beat the fastest horse in race. He was also a very good archer. No sooner did he see the bandits, then he climbed up a hill and shouted towards Madina to raise the alarm. He then chased the handits and on approaching near them re their change the bandus and, on approximate hear their, started sending arrows one after the other. He did this so well and incessantly that the bandus thought they were being chased by a lurge number of people. If any of the headity hunnered to turn his horse towards him, he hid behind a tree and inflicted wounds on the animal with his arrow. The bandits at once retreated at full speed to escape from being eaptured.

Salamah (radivallahu anhu) saya

"O' Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam)! let me have one bundred men, I shall teach them a lesson"

But Rasuiullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said.

"No. They would have by now reached their bases"

Most of the historians say that Salamah (radiyallahu anhu) was hardly 12 or 13 at that time. Look how a boy of such a small age was able to chase so many bundits angle handed. He resovered all the plunder and besides took a considerable booty from them. This was the outcome of DMAAN and Ikhlas, with which Allah had unbuild the hearts of thus blessed north.

BARA'S EAGERNESS TO JOIN BADR

Bade was the most collect and illustrious battle ever fought by the Muslims who were faced with very heavy odds. There were 313 men, 3 horses, 70 camels, 6 or 9 costs of arms and 8 swords with Rasulullah (salisliahu alayhi wasalam) while the Ouraish had shout 1000 men. 1000 horses. 700 comels and were armed to the teeth. The Ouraish were so sure of their victory that they had brought with them musical instruments and singers to celebrate the victory. Rasulullah (sallaliahl) alayhi wasallam) was very amious because of the heavy odds against him. He prayed to Allah saving:

"O' Allah! Thy faithful slaves are barefootad, Thou and only Thou can provide them with animals to ride upon. They are naked: Thou and only Thou can clad them. They are noor. They and only Thou can sustain them"

Allah granted his prayer and gave the most glorious victory to the Muslima In spire of knowing the strength of the Cursish Abdullsh.

bin-Umar and Bara-bin-Azib, in engerness to join the battle, had some out with the Muishidin. Rassibilish sallalahu alayhi wasaflam however, in consideration of their tender age did not permit them to proceed to the battlefield.

As we have already seen both these hour were also rejected for the same reason at the time of Uhud which took place one year after Badr. Look at the wonderful spirit of the youngsters of that timall!!

ABDULLAH-BIN-ABDULLAH-BIN-UBAYY DISGRACES HIS MUNAFIO FATHER

He further said

"By Allah! On return to Madina we the exalted people drive out these base people from there"

Zsid-bin-Arqam (radiyallas anhu), an ansaari boy, was listening to him. He could not tolerate these words and at once retorted by saving to him:

"By Allah! You yourself are base. Even your own people look down upon you 'Nobody will support you Mohantened (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) is most honoured. He is exalted by Ar-Rahman and revered by his followers:

Abduliah-bin-Ubayy said.

UPBRINGING OF CHILDREN

"All right, Don't mention it to anybody. It was only a jest I was not senous in what I sauf"

Zaid (ndiyullahu anhu) however went strught to Rasolullah (salihahu alayh) wasalimya and narradet o him ali that the munitif had said. A few of the Ansars were also sitting with Resulullah (sallallahu: alauhi wasallam). They also pleaded his case by savine

"O' Rasululiah (sallaliahu alayin wasallam)! He is cheef of his clan. He is a big man. His statement is more reliable than the report by a more boy. It is just possible that Zaid might have misheard or misunderstood him."

and stood just outside the town and in a challenging tone saying to his munafic father:

"I will not allow you to enter Madina until you admit with your own tongue that it is you who is base and Mohammed (sallallahu alayhi wasallum) is most exalted".

This surprised him very much as the son had always been very respectful to him but now be was prepared to kill him, his father, for the honour of Rasulullah (sallahahu alayhi wasallam). The munafiq had to declare.

"By Allah!" I am base and Mohammed (saliallahu alayhi wasallam) is most exalted"

He was then allowed to enter the town

IABIR'S EAGERNESS TO FIGHT

When the battle of Uhud was over, remnants of Sahabah returned to Madina most tired and broken When the Quraish on their way back to Mecca were camping at a place called Hamra-ul-Asad their chief. Abu Sufiyan sat in council with his fleutenants. They said among themselves:

"The Muslims are defeated in Unad. Their morale must be very low...This is the best time to finish Mohammed (salfallahu alayhi wasallam)."

They, therefore, decided to return and attack Madina When Resulullah (sallahlan alayhi wasallam) received intelligence about this council, he ordered all those Sahasba who had participated in Uhud and who had just returned from the battle to move out of Madina and meet the enemy in the way.

UNDERWEINE OF CHILDREN

Jabir (radsyaliniu anhu) came to Rasululah (salialiahu alayhi wasaliam) and said:

"O' Resultilah (salfatlahu alsyts wasailan) I was very eager to fight is Uhud but my father prevented me from going on the plea that there was no other member in the house to took after my sisters and only one of us could join the campaign. As he had made up his mind to go he bade me stay back with the family. He met the most coveted end (i.e marrydrom) in Uhud Now I am very eager to go with you this time and fight the Qurisah!"

Rasulullah (sallallahu ziayhi wasallam) allowed him to go. He was the only person in that campaiga who had not fought in Uhud.

Jabir's father was maryred in Uhud. He left Jabir's hig family to look after and Jarge desits to cleav with anothing to live on. The debts were due to one of the Jews who as we know seddom have any soft comer in their learns for their debtors. Again his seven sairer for whose-sake he was not allowed to go to Uhud were still there to be looked after. Now look in spite of all indused and difficulties Jabir (rudystalan units) requests fascabillain (saliallan exploration of the control of the control of the batter. His spirit was really wonderful?)

IBN-E-ZUBAIR'S VALOUR AGAINST THE ROMANS

In 26 A.H. Usman (radiyallabs ashu), the then ktalifich appointed Abdullab-hin-Assarah (radiyallabs ashu) as the governer of Egypt in place of Amar-bin-Asia (radiyallabu ashu). Abdullab (radiyallabu ashu). Abdullab (radiyallabu ashu). Abdullab (radiyallabu ashu) with 20,000 Majahdina davlaced to meet the Roman army numbering 200,000 It was a very fierce battle. The Romal commander Janiu made a proclamation saving

"The person who kills Abdullab will get my daughter's hard in marriage and also 100,000 dinars in prize".

UPBRINGING OF CHILDREN

Some of the Muslims grew auxious over this proclamation. When Abdullah-bin-Zubair was informed of this he said

"There is nothing to worry about. We may also announce that the person killing Jarjir will get Jarjir's daughter in marriage, 1,00,000 dinars in prize and also governorship over the area now ruled by him"

The fight was tough and went on for a long time thme-Zubair (radiyallabu anal) succeeded in sporting Jarijs restnet behind this forces under an umbrella of peaceck feathers held by two maids Bne-Zubair (radiyallabu anal), all at once, outskirred the Roman troops and approached him. He attacked Jarijs with his sword and severed his head from his body life then fixed the head at the point of his spear and returned to his camp to the utter was account of his the Armin services.

When Sahsaba (radiyallahu anhu) emigrated to Madina no son was born to any of the emigrants for one year after the emigration. The Jews of Madina said.

"We have cast a spell on the emigrants. They cannot have male issues."

Abdullab-bin-Zabair (mdigntlaba neba) was the first male child born to the Mulaidhi The Muslime were, naturally, very happy over his birth. Rasubullah (sallalaha alayis wasallam) would not generally allow the children to take an oath of allegance to him. Bur Abdullab-bin-Zabair had the honour of pedging allegiance to Rasubullah (sallahas alayis wasallam) when he was only seven During this battle he was pust in his early twentier. To go single-handed and skill the commander after boodworking its army

AMAR-BIN-SALMAH LEADS IN SALAT

Amur-bin-Salmah (radiyallahu anhu) says.

"We lived with our father at a place on the Caravan route to Madina. When a caravan from Madina passed our village we inquired of the people therein about Mohammed (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) They would tell us that he claimed to be receiving revelations from Allah and they would also recite a few verses of the Quraan before us to give us the idea about his claim Now, I immediately used to commit those verses to my memory. In this way remembered a good portion of the Qurann even before I embraced Islam. All the desert tribes were waiting for Mecca to fall to Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) before they embraced Islam On his victorious entry into Mecca, deputations from all the tribes began to come to Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) to accent Islam. My father headed the proun who went to Rasulullah (salialahu alayhi wasallam) to piedge allegiance to him on behulf of our tribe Rasulullah (saliallahu alayhi wasallam) taught them basic regulations about SALAAT and other Islamic practices He said to them: "The person who knows more Quraan is entitled to lead in SALAAT' Now it so happened that none in my tribe knew as much Oursan as I did. They searched for an Imam but they could not find a person knowing more Quous than I. I was therefore made Imam. At that time I was only so the congregational SALAAT and funeral service if any: ore made Imam. At that time I was only seven, I led

It was this natural inclination and affinity towards Islam that made him remember so much of the Quraan when he was only a boy and when he had not embraced Islam.

ABDULLAH-BIN-ARBAS TEACHES HIS SLAVE

Ikramah the slave of Abdullah-bin-Abbas (radiyailahu anhu) is one of the eminent Ulama He says:

DERRINGING OF CHILDREN

"During my learning of the Qurean and Hadith I was kept in chains by my master so that I might not go anywhere and devote full time to my lessons."

In fact real knowledge can only be acquired when one is totally devoted to it. The numbers who are in the label of wasting that time in roaming about and enjoying themselves can seddom saquire deep knowledge. It was the result for this labour that Braumah was later on called "The ocean of knowledge" and "The most learned man of Ummark. Outside have

"There are four most learned men among the Tabiis and Ikramah is one of them".

IBN-ABBAS MEMORISES THE OURAAN IN HIS CHILDHOOD

Abdullah-bin-Abbas (radivallahs anka) used to say to the people.

In another Hadith he is reported to have said: "I had finished my reading of the Oursum when I was ten".

The reading of the Quraan in Shhabaha's time was not done as the reading by the non-Arabo of roday. Whatever they rand, they read with full meaning and explanations. As the impression of something memorised in childhood is very deep and opermanent, Abdullah-tin-Abbas (radiyallahu arba) is accepted as Imam in Tafisi. None of the Sahabaha has narrated more Hadribs in explaining the meaning of Quraan as done by Ibn-Abbas. Abdullah-tin-Masoo (radiyallahu arba) says:

"Abdullah-bin-Abbas (radiyallahu anhu) is the best commentator of the Quraan".

UPBRINGING OF CHILDREN

Abu-Abdur Rahman (rahmatulish alay) on the authority of Sahaabah who taught him the Qurasa says

"The Sabaabah learnt ten verses of the Quraan from Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) at a time. They would not take the next lesson until they had mastered the knowledge and practice of those ten verses."

Abdulla-bim Abbas (rad/waliba athu) was 13 at the time of Rashullar's (callallaria sajivi wazallar) death. It is a mirried that be knew so much of the Cursan and Elsifich at such a young agetification of the Cursan and Elsification and Sajivi wasallami, and the company of the Cursan This was, however, all due to the blessing of Rasyladhi (ashlakha sispivi wasallami, control of the Cursan Cursan Cursan Cursan Cursan Cursan de Cursan Cursa

On this occasion too Rasuiuliah (salialiahu alayhi wasaliam) prayed for his knowledge and understanding.

ABDULLAH-BIN-AMAR-BIN-AL'AS NOTES DOWN HADITHS.

Abdullah-bin-Amar-bin-Al-as (radiyallaha anha) was one of the most pious Sahaabah He fasted by day and read a complete Quraan in Tahajjud Salaar. Rasuhilah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) admonshed him for this excessive labour and said

"You will get weak by daily fast and your eye-sight will suffer by keeping awake every night. You owe some duties to your body, members of your family, and those who come to visit you"

He says. "Resolublish (sallalata alayih westlem) then advised me to take not less han a month to finds non Curana 1 said O' Rasulullah (sallalaha alayih westlam)! This is too little. Let me make fill tue of lony strength while I any young He har reduced the period to 20 days. I kept on repeating my words and Rasulullah (sallalaha alayih wastlam) continued reducing the period till finally I was permitted to take three days in finishing one Qurana!

He had a collection of the Hadith compiled by him which he had named "Sadigah (True)". He says

"I use to put down all that I heard from Rasuhilah (ashlahah alayhi wasallam) People once said to me "Rasuhilah (salalahah alayhi wasallam) is after all a hunan being and many words uttered by him in anger or humora era excludly not neant by him. You should not write cach and every thing spoken by him." I accepted the advice On my once mentioning thus to Rasuhilah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam), he said "You keep doing as before By Him who holds my life in His hand my lips do not utter anything except the truth"

Abu Huraira (radivallahu anhu) says:

"No one has narrated about Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) more than me except Abdullah-bin-Amar This is because he used to note down what he heard him say while I relied on my memory".

This is really wonderful specially when we know that he was most of the time devoted to SALAAT, reading the Quraan and other acts of piety

ZAID-BIN-THABIT MEMORISES OURAAN

Zaid-bin-Thubit (ruliyullahu suhu) is one of those eminent Santabah who or comisdered to be most learned and whose to words in religious matters carry much weight. He was an expert regulation regulation in duris at Hau and that he was among the toy muching hirtis, Judges and Outsi Hau and that he was among the toy muching hirtis, Judges and Outsi Hau and that he was among the toy in spin of this agentesa he was minimized to Adeline. This is why in spin of this agentesa he was minimized to Adeline. This is why in spin of the agentesa he was not allowed to particular in the early battles like Bad et et. He had lost his father when he was it. When Raushilla (radiallahu alphi wasalim) arrived in Madian, peccle brought their children to him to receive his Oessings Zaid was also brought to then for the same purpose He Dessings Zaid was also brought to then for the same purpose.

"When I was presented to Rasululish (sallathatu alayhi wasallam) he was informed that I had till then memorised seventeen surab, of the Quraan. In order to test me he bade me to read some of them I recited surah Qaf. He rewarded me with his words of appreciation."

DEPRENGING OF CHILDREN

Resulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) while writing letters to the Jews outside Madina used to utilise the services of the local Jews. Once he said to Zaid:

"I am not satisfied with what the Jews write and read for me I apprehend mischief from them in miswriting or misreading. I desire you to learn the Jewish language".

Zaid (radivallahu anhu) sava:

"In fifteen days I mastered Hebrew and after that I started doing all such correspondence for him"

According to another Hadith Zaid (radivallahu anhu) is reported to have similarly mastered Suryani language at the instance of Rasulullah (saliallahu alayhi wasallam). This he managed within the abort period of 17 daya only.

HASAN'S KNOWLEDGE OF ISLAM

The head of the Sayyada Hasan (radiyakishu anhu) was born in Ramadhaan 3 A.H. He was thus a little over seven years old at the time of Rasululish (sallilahus alayhi wasallam) death in spite of his tender age quite a few Hadiths have been narrated by him.

Abut Horsh open sabed him.

"Do you remember any saying of Rasululiah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam)?"

He said: "Yes. Once I was going with him. On the way I saw a large quantity of dates of sadnqah piled up at one place I took a date from the pile and pat it not my neural. Rassucllah (sallailaha akyih wasallam) exclairand, "Kaibi Kakhi (exclamation of disapproval)" and then he took out the date from my mouth with the help of his finger saying. "The sadarah is not permitted for us (e family of Rassullaha (sallailaha sakyih wasallam)". Rassullaha" is fallailaha sakyih wasallam". Rassullaha asked about his reason for undergoing such hardships, he remarked." I feel ashamed to face Allah (after my death) without having gone to Mecca on foot for pilgrimage to His house."

HERRINGING OF CHILDREN

Hasan (radiyallahu anhu) is reputed for his piety and midiness He is responsible for narraing mean hadish softested by Ahmad in his Musund. The Author of "Taight" has included Hasan (radiyallahu anhu) among those who have reported a many as I saidish. To have remembered so many hadiths at the age of 7 shows his devotion to Islam and his remukable memory On the other hand, our children at this age generally do not know even the elements of Islam.

HUSAIN'S ZEAL FOR KNOWLEDGE

Husain (radiyallahu anhu) was one year jamior to Hasan (radiyallahu anhu), his brother He was a little over 6 at the time of Rasublialis Asiallahu slayhi wasallam) death Nothing much can be expected from a child of this age, but there are quite a few hadiths narrated by Husain (radiyallahu anhu) Muhaddithin count him among those sahaaba who are responsible for giving us at

The following Hadiths are among those narrated by Husain (radivallahu anhu):

"Each time a person recites "Inna-tillahi-wa-Inna-Baihi-rajeoon" when he calls up or is otherwise reminded of an adversity previously met by him, he receives a reward from Allah as good as he had done at the time of actual infliction".

2. "A Muslim gets immune from drowning white crossing a river when at the time of embarking he recites:

(In the name of Aliah be its course and its mooring. Lo! My Lord is surely, most forgiving-most merciful")

3. "To shun vain things makes one a good Muslim".

Rabish (radiyallahu anha) says "I once asked Husain (radiyallahu anha) if he remembered any incident in the life time of Rasahullah (salislahu layshi wasallam). He sad: "Yeu Once I managed to get on to a few dates lying neur a wasdow and put one of them into my mouth. Rasahiahu (salislahu dayshi wasallam) bade me take out and throw ways the data as we (Le his family members) were not permitted to est anything from sadaqah".

Husain (radiyallahu anhu) had gone on foot 25 times for pilgrimage to Macca. He was very punctual in fasting, saying nafl and specifing on the poor.

We find quite a few subsubsh nearesting many things which they had heard from Ramshillah (sallishad uspik) vessallari) in their childhood. Makmond-bin-ra-Rabi (radiyallaha subal) vas only five at the time of Ramshillah (sallishad subayi) was subject to the time of Ramshillaha subayi was subject of the says: "Once Rasshillaha subayi was subject of the says: "Once Rasshillaha subayi was subject to survive the subject of the

"When I had finished memorising the Qursan, my father required me to repeat (from memory) fall Qursan once daily, and permitted me to play for the rest of the day. I used to sit on the roof of the house (demg Summer) and start recting the Qursan just after Fajr. I finished the entire Qursan is about 7 hours. I then had my lunch. In the vening I use to have lessons in Persian though it was not compulsory for me. To this routine I stuck for full six member.

It is not an ordinary thing for a child of seven to recite one Qurean daily for full six months along with learning other things. It was the result of this labour that he would never forget or commit an error while reciting the Oursan by memory

MARRIAGE OF CHILDREN

As soon as children cross the childhood stage and reach adolescence, the parents responsibility and anotheries take a new turn. When their soons are fully grown up the parents feed dasted by the thought take more three adors will help them and favore their control of the sound to be the soon of the sound to be the soon of the so

Islam also asks the parents to fiddli this responsibility when their children control of that age It advises you to arrange for the matringen of your eligible children without any necessary delay. Though it defaults visites some time to find a situation instead, it, although the control visites some time too find a situation instead, it was to be sufficient to the control of the

It is stated in a Hadith

"One who is bestowed with children by Almighty Allah, he should give them good names, give them good education and training and get them narried when they gain adulthood. In case they are not married and transgress from the path of virtue, the father will be held responsible for that.

UPBRINGING OF CHILDREN

According to another Hadith, Rasahullah (saliallahu slayhi wasallam) said "It has been ordained in the Torah that a fasher, whose daughter reaches the age of twelve and due to the delay in marriage indulges in wrong behaviour, will bear the responsibility of the sin committed by his daughter".

When a parent feels that his children are of a marriageable age and can bear the responsibilities of a family, he should get them married. The age may vary in different individuals. But the average age of a boy will be approximately 20 and in the girl sooroofmately 17.

Delay in the marriage of children usually happens due to the non-waithbillity of a shalled mutch. No dood it is the duty of purents to select most appropriate matches for their children island also wants them to do so. It does not not also you to be intended to the children island also wants them to do so. It does not not all you to be matches for their children. Marriage is one of the most important issues and it should be done very carefully and judiciously. Success or descruction of order whole life (temporal as well as when the children is the children is the children is the children in the careful does of marriage more to who one is to be donnt in the exact of books of marriagement.

The thing to be taken care of in this regard is that the standards of our selection should be in accordance with Islam. It is quite possible that the marriage of your children is being selayed due to some unreasonable standards, fixed by you for the selection of a sard or a box, which have no sumificance tail in Islam.

Hazzat Abu Huraira (radiyallahu anhu) reports that Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) said

"A woman may be married for four reasons, for her wealth, her status, her beauty and her piety. So try to get one who is religious and prosper" Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) exhorts bis followers to make religious and piety the first enterion of choice of woman And there is no denying the fact that if a Muslim acquires piety and abstrance, it is mostly due to a virtuous wife who in the words of Rasulullah (sallallahu alayhi wasallam) again is "THE BEST OBJECT OF BENDETI IN THE WORLD."

Coochasively, it is clear that if there exists no piety, then generally, exaltly, heavy and noble integage hold no worth. In addition, in a situation where there exists no piety the chastity and indecty to a woman is in danger. Chastity and modesty is after all the halfmark of a woman. Therefore the most important thing to seek in a girl in piety.

The girl should be somewhat learned. She should have a sound knowledge of DEEN. She should not be ignorant.

She should also be acquainted with managing house-hold work

The age of the girl should be somewhat less than that of the boy For a young boy, a virgin girl is more suitable so that in accordance with the sayings of the Hadith alot of love and affection will be created between the two.

The got should be healthy. She should not be afflicted with a fatal or overlasting disease.

These points should also be keet in mind by the girl's family

It is mentioned in a Hadith that Rasnlullah (sallallahu alayhi wassilam) said. "Marry a woman who is loving and who can bear many children".

many children".

The Ulema are of the opinion that the way in which a person can deduce this is by looking at the girl's family. If the gar's father, brother etc. are not headed, impatient and so on, it is highly possible that the girl herself might possess these qualities herself

UPBRINGING OF CHILDREN

Secondly to know if the girl can bear many offspring, you should consider her father's side family eg her father's sister. If her father's aster has many obliders then it is possible that she herself will bear many children.

From the above we also deduce that the parents play a big role in the correct uppraigns of their children. To further substantiate this Randullah (sallalahu alayhi wasallam) told Hazzar Ayesha (radiyallahu anha) to be kand to a pooy, so that when it grows up it will not be harsh

Likewise if you teach children from their tender age to be kind, patient etc. they will definitely possess these qualities on growing up

He sent me a sealed bag containing one thousand Dirhams, with the word that I could use the amount as I liked. I had hardly tasted the pleasure of receiving such a valuable pift, when I received a note from the other (non-Hashamte) friend, telling me about his poverty and dire need (like the one I had written to my friend). I sent the sealed has of Dirhams to my non-Hashamite friend. Feeling shy of going home empty-handed I stayed in the Masjid for two days, and on the third day, went home and told my wife the whole truth about the sealed bas. Surprisingly enough she did not complain at all, but rather appreciated my generosity, and said that I had behaved excellently towards my friend. Once he had arranged a party and all his friends were with him, waiting for the drinks to be served, when he gave four Dirhams to one of his slave-boys and told him to bring some fruit from the market, which he wanted to serve to his friends before the drinks. On the way to the market, the slave came across Shelk Mansur bin Ammar al-Basri (rahmatulish alay) who was sitting in company with his friends and followers. The Sheik was exhorting people to give alms to a poor man. He said, in the course of his exhortation. "Whosoever gives four Dirhams as sadana to this poor man. I shall supplicate Allah Taa'la to fulfil four wishes of his" The slave boy gave four Durhams to the poor man and the Sheik asked him to name his four wishes. The boy said "I am a bondsman working under my master: I wish that he should set me free! The Sheik said. "O' Allah, grant him freedom from bondage!" The boy then said, "My second desire is that Allah Taa'la should give me a good recompense for the four Dirhams that I have given away". The Sheek prayed accordingly. When Eid-ul-Adhaa came round, my husband said to me. "We own nothing except this she-goat, let us sacrifice it in the name of Allah" I said, "We have nothing but its milk to live on Aliah Taa'la has not made it incumbent (waasib) upon us to sacrifice an animal in such circumstances. #### The FINAL MESSAGE

The most important aspect is the upbringing of a child is to explain to the child the object why Albah Tarl's has created us and put us in this world. These factors will have to be incultanted, in fact drammed into the mind of the child right from his tender age. It should be explained to she child right from his tender age it should be explained to she child that Allah Tarl's has sent us in the world for His worship as Allah Tarl's says in the Quraan Melanti

"And I did not create Jinn and Man but to worship me".

From this ayat we tearn that we have been sent to this world for the obedience of Allah Taala. It second purpose Allah Taala has put to the Urnant of Rasuhillah (sallalianu alayhi wasailam) in this world, is to do this work of inviting to good and stopping evil and to propagate the DEEN of Islam as Allah Taala says

"You are the best of nations taken out for (the guidance of) the people, commanding to good and prohibiting evil and believing in Allah"

From this we learn that we are only the best of nations because of

Also Allah Taa'la says in the Oursan Majeed:

قُلْ لَهٰذِهِ سَبِيْنِيْنَ آدُعُوّا لِلَى اللّٰهِ : عَلَمْ بَعِيدُوّةِ آمَا وَمَنِي الْتَبْعَزِيُّ وَشَبْلُمَنَ اللّٰهِ وَثَنَّا آلا صِنَالُمُشْلُكُ كُذِّنَ

"Say! ('O Mohammed to the people), This is my path that I call people towards Allah with yakeen. I and those who follow me".

From this we learn that those who follow Rasulullah (saliallahu alayhi wasaliam) should call people to Allah Similariy Allah Taa'la says in the Quraan Majeed:

"Allah takes an oath on time, Verily Man is at a loss but those who believe and practice righteous deeds, invite to truth and to sabr" (SURAH AL'ASR)

From here we learn that Man is at a loss if he makes anything eler his object besides these four things vir, believing in Allah, practiting injutious decked, withing to truth and to soler. The cloth decked for tanglet and end in a first them and been some to this about the soler of the common of the time and been some to this of these word is not the object of the believer. Face the world and few women." A beautiful way to anderstand this world in how Imnam Chazali (rahmatallah alay) has explained this world in how Imnam Chazali (rahmatallah alay) has explained that this daway is like the water of his ocean and we extra verifieng in a sitip in this ocean. As long as we use the water only for reaching our destination, we will be set BUT! If we allow the water to enter the ship then we all will sink. Similarly if we jet the love of the dutys enter our hearts then we will be unsuccessful In short the child should be taught last we have been seen to this world to digood and to tell others to do good. Whenever the child shows extra love and attachment to some worldy thing e.g. a world show the child the short of the last the better Propertiely, the intains (bountles) of Sannar
